Christmas cheer is coming to Ansonville, and you won't even have to get out of your car to enjoy much of it! The Town of Ansonville invites everyone to its Christmas Drive-Thru celebration on Friday, December 4, from 5 to 7 p.m., featuring holiday festivities, treats and a special opportunity to visit with Santa Claus.

The drive-thru route will begin at Ansonville Town Hall, located at 8778 Main Street in Ansonville. Families are invited to follow the route and enjoy the holiday atmosphere as the community celebrates the Christmas season.

Forever Tree Lighting to Honor Loved Ones December 8

The holiday season is a time for family, traditions and remembering those who hold a special place in our hearts. Anson Community Hospice invites the community to celebrate those memories during its annual Forever Tree Lighting Service on Tuesday, December 8 at 6 p.m. The special service will be held in the chapel of Leavitt Funeral Home, located at 2036 Morven Road in Wadesboro.

Sponsored by Anson Community Hospice, an agency of Richmond County Hospice, the Forever Tree Lighting offers families an opportunity to remember someone who has passed away or honor someone special in their lives. For a $10 donation, participants may dedicate a personalized ornament to a loved one. Each ornament will be placed on the Forever Tree as a tribute to the person being remembered or honored.

Donations must be received by Monday, November 30 for loved ones to be recognized during the Anson County service.

Richmond County Hospice will also hold a Forever Tree Lighting on Tuesday, December 1 at 6 p.m. on the front lawn of its office at 1119 U.S. Highway 1 North in Rockingham. Donation deadline for that service is Monday, Nov. 23.

Both ceremonies are open to the public, offering a meaningful opportunity to gather with others, share memories and celebrate the lasting love of family members and friends.

To participate, send the completed ornament dedication form that is in this edition of The Express to Richmond County Hospice, 1119 U.S. Highway 1 North, Rockingham, NC 28379.
