Human Trafficking Presentation January 9

Connections Family Support Program will sponsor a presentation on human trafficking on Tuesday, January 9, from 12 noon to 1:30 p.m. in the Pritchett Room at the Hampton B. Allen Library. This presentation, in association with North Carolina Families United, will feature Professor Judith Pappozzi from the University of North Carolina at Pembroke.

Professor Pappozzi is a passionate advocate for the prevention of human trafficking, as well as educating the public on the awareness of this horrible crime. She teaches the Sociology and Criminal Justice department's "Human Trafficking & Slavery" course almost every semester, as well as some summer sessions, online and at UNCP's Cape Fear Community College satellite location.

Space is limited, so please register by Friday, January 5 with Suzanne Maness. You can email her at connectionsfspp@gmail.com or call (910) 627-1769. Lunch and resources will be provided at no cost for registered participants.

Let us provide your community quality service. We provide commercial and residential service in Anson!

REMEMBERING.....

By Ed McBride

THE BOOK IS NOW AVAILABLE

We are pleased to offer this 80 page book containing nearly 200 Remembering columns by Ed McBride that were published in The Express Newspaper.

This book was presented to Ed for his 90th birthday, August 10, 2012. The subjects of his columns - people, businesses, churches, schools, events - have touched the lives of many people associated with Anson County, North Carolina and beyond.

Each book is printed to order, therefore the price is slightly higher than mass produced books.

Call The Express for information, 704-694-2480 or visit www.Blurb.com and search "Ed McBride."

Each Remembering book includes a high resolution pdf of the book so you can print out your favorite columns!
