

Artis Willoughby, Jr. Honored Posthumously with Humanitarian Award

The Ada Ford Singleton Humanitarian Award was presented to parents, Mr. and Mrs. Artis Willoughby, Sr. in honor of their son, the late Artis Willoughby, Jr. This presentation was for Artis Willoughby's unselfish and dedicated service to those in need. Mr. Willoughby often went out of his way to help others with auto repairs, food, clothing, supplies, locating affordable housing, financial needs and so much more. Mrs. Ada Ford Singleton, former president of the Anson County's NAACP for thirty years, always stressed and encouraged the importance of helping and serving those in need. Therefore this award was presented by Chairman Rev. Charles Ford, Sr. and Co-Chairman Charles Ford, Jr. of the Ada Ford Singleton Biography Committee on Sunday, January 15 at Gatewood Station A.M.E. Zion Church under the pastoral leadership of Rev. David Richardson.
