Mr. Terrance (Fuji) Kenyatta Caple

Mr. Terrance (Fuji) Kenyatta Caple passed away in Baltimore, Maryland, on January 29, 2022.

Funeral services will be held at 12:30 p.m. on Saturday, February 19, 2022, at Leavitt Funeral Home with Pastor Joe Thomas Copeland officiating. Public viewing will be held before the funeral, from 10:00 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. at the funeral home.

Burial Services will be held on Friday, February 25, 2022, at MD Veterans Cemetery in Baltimore, MD.

Terrance was born January 4, 1976, in Chesterfield, South Carolina, the son of the late Pam Caple and Clyde Hamilton.

As a young boy growing up in a multi-generational home in Cairo, NC, Terrance was surrounded by love. He was always full of life, energy and enjoyed all the beautiful simplicities of life as a country boy. He spent his childhood making memories alongside his sister, cousins, and friends. Picking blackberries, making mud pies, playing pitty-pat and tag – all barefoot and carefree. Walking to Pleasant Hill Baptist Church Sunday School with Great Grandma Hattie, gardening and pulling weeds, enduring Aunt Sherry's bald haircuts, enjoying the fruits of his labor like a juicy peach on the front porch. And of course, the occasional switch when he needed to be reminded of his manners, which was often!

Terrance had a love for all sports, especially basketball and was thrilled to play for his high school team, Anson Senior High. He was also a huge Carolina Panthers fan and was excited about Cam's return.

After graduating from high school in 1994, Terrance joined the United States Air Force, as he had a strong desire to serve his country. Terrance lit up every room he entered with his charm, energy, and charisma. These traits served him well in his post-military career as a car salesman.

Terrance met the love of his life, Brenette (Lucky) Sabedra, in the year 2006, and they spent the last 16 years building a life together with loving family and friends. He was a loving "Pop Pop" and adored his grandchildren, speaking of them often with pride and enthusiasm.

From the day Terrance and Lucky met it was magical. Memories were created that will last forever. From the weekly date nights, to the weekend trips or just hanging out to pass time these love birds were always together. He never missed a doctor's appointment with Lucky and made sure he was always there to ensure the family was taken care of, especially the grandkids.

Terrance was always there to put a smile on everyone's face. He was always the life of the party. Terrance never met a stranger he did not get along with, building lifelong friends wherever he went. He was the textbook definition of an extrovert, gaining energy from everyone he met. Be they babies, seniors, or a homeless person on the corner, Terrance genuinely loved talking to everyone. Seriously, everyone. He made you feel like you were the center of his attention and would offer his advice freely to anyone willing to share a conversation. Terrance adopted those he met into his family, giving you a title – big brother, little sister, auntie, uncle, punk, etc. His network of family and friends was boundless, and so he leaves many to grieve his loss.

Upon the passing of his mother, Terrance was raised by his aunt/second mom Brenda Caple Hall and dad Anthony Hall. He also leaves behind his beloved fiancé Brenette (Lucky) Sabedra; five children, Janae Sturdivant, Jomand McKnight, Essence McKnight, Sabrina Sabedra and Corrina Sabedra; five grandchildren, A' Marie Sabedra-Johnson, Samir Harris, Mason Sabedra-Williams, Nylah Gaddy and Myles Gaddy; grandmother Geraldine Caple; godmother Delores Little; sister Yolanda Lindsay (Dedric); brother Travis Hall; godbrother Maurice Little (Linda); four aunts, Faye Capel, Carol Caple, Sherry Caple Cash (Eugene) and Jessica Caple; two uncles, Wayne Caple and Anthony Caple to mourn his passing; along with numerous cousins, family and friends who loved him.

Terrance was welcomed home by his beloved mother Pam; grandson Daylon Sabedra-Harris; grandma Alice Caple; grandad Jesse (Snap) Caple; great grandparents Charlie and Hattie Caple, all of whom preceded him in death.

Our hearts ache and yet we are grateful for his peace. May God Bless him and may he rest in everlasting peace and joy. We will meet him in Heaven; he was "just passing by, this was not his home." May God be glorified, even as we grieve our loss for Terrance.

NCDA&CS to Check Farmers' Market Scales

As shoppers head to farmers markets and roadside stands across the state we can take comfort knowing that N.C. Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services (NCDA&CS) Standards Division inspectors have checked the scales of commerce at these locations to ensure fair trade.

Local market vendors are invited to a free NCDA&CS scale inspection on Wednesday, February 23 at 10 a.m. at the Anson County Farmers Market, located at 1736 US-52 in Wadesboro.

Scales are checked annually. Farmers market vendors usually have scales checked before stands and markets open and scales are in constant use. In North Carolina, anytime a scale is used to determine the price of an item, that scale should be inspected and certified by the Standards Division. Inspectors make sure scales are clean, level and accurate. To pass inspection, produce scales cannot be off more than .03 pounds. A 30-pound hanging scale has a tolerance of 1 ounce.

An NCDA&CS Standards Division seal is placed on the scale after it passes inspection. The rectangular-shaped sticker includes the year and month the scale was inspected, and typically on a spot visible to consumers.
