

Free income tax assistance will be available for Anson County residents sixty years of age or older of low or moderate income needing help in preparing their income tax returns through a program sponsored by AARP and Grace Senior Center. Volunteer counselors trained in cooperation with the IRS will be at Grace Senior Center on Wednesday, March 2 and Wednesday, April 6. Free assistance is designed to help taxpayers fill out forms 1040EZ, 1040A, 1040 and the North Carolina return.

Persons using the service should bring to the tax aide site this year tax package, age and earnings statements (forms W-2) received from employers, interest statements from banks (form 1099-INT) a copy of last year tax return and any other relevant information concerning income and expenses. Electronic filing of returns will be available.

If you are interested please call Grace Senior Center to register and for additional information at 704-694-6616.

Sara was born July 2, 1927 in Anson County, a daughter of the late Walter Sanford Eddins and the late Hester Baker Eddins. She was a graduate of Morven High School, and was a rural mail carrier for 34 years, having worked at both Morven and Wadesboro Post Offices.

She was a member of Bethel United Methodist Church and served the church as organist. She also served as organist at New Hope United Methodist Church and Morven Presbyterian Church.

Surviving are her children, Janice Robinson Truman (Bill) of Tar Heel, Rick Robinson of Charlotte and Ron Robinson (Nancy) of Morven; her grandchildren, Dr. Lea Truman Drye (Clay) of Ellicott City, MD, Dr. Chris Truman (Kate) of Laurel, MD, Kim Truman McVicker of Elizabethtown, Neil Robinson of Lexington, SC and Laura Robinson of Morven; her seven great-grandchildren; and her brothers-in-law, Lester Williamson of Morven and Jack Thomas of Oakboro.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband Cedric Poe Robinson, son Jerry Robinson and sisters and brothers, Pauline Gathings, Everette Eddins, Jean Snuggs, Peggy Thomas, Lois Williamson and Jimmy Eddins.

Sara's family wishes to express their heartfelt gratitude for the loving care she received at Weddington Park Assisted Living. The staff there enriched her life so and enabled a greater quality of life for her in recent years.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Bethel United Methodist Church, c/o Melinda Hatok, P.O. Box 911, Wadesboro, NC 28170 or New Hope United Methodist Church, c/o Lib Tucker, 1338 Mayesville Rd., Morven, NC 28119 or Morven Presbyterian Church, P.O. Box 274, Morven, NC 28119. The arrangements were in care of Leavitt Funeral Home. Online condolences may be made at www.leavittfh.com.

Mrs. Emma Johnson Tyson

Mrs. Emma Johnson Tyson, 94, of Albemarle died Monday afternoon, February 15, 2016, at her home.

Funeral services were held on Thursday, February 18, 2016, at Norwood First Baptist Church with Rev. B. J. Bowers and Rev. Mark Little officiating. Interment followed in Red Hill Baptist Church Cemetery.

Mrs. Tyson was born May 2, 1921, in Anson County to the late James McDonald Johnson and Ella Elizabeth Martin Johnson. She was a 1937 graduate of Ansonville High School and was a member of Norwood First Baptist Church. She was a retiree of Gilead Manufacturing.

Mrs. Tyson was a loving mother and grandmother. Her family looked to her for Christian guidance and direction. To some individuals, she was the only Bible they read. She was a determined lady, never giving up on something she set her mind to.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband John R. Tyson and nine brothers and sisters.

She is survived by her children, Barbara Cooper of Albemarle, Brenda Plyler (Darrell) of Jefferson, SC, Richard Tyson (Rosa) and Mark Tyson (Katie), all of Ellerbe, and Phyllis Kupsick (Ted) and Rachel Carpenter (Dennis), all of Norwood; 14 grandchildren, 40 great-grandchildren and ten great-great-grandchildren.

The family requests memorials be made to the American Cancer Society or a Cancer Center of the donor's choice.

Online condolences may be made at edwards-funeralhomes.com.
