Free Workshop for People with Developmental Disabilities

A free workshop for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities, their families and others interested in finding staff who will support them as an ally rather than as a slacker or smotherer will be offered on Monday, March 12. The workshop is offered at 3 p.m. and again at 6 p.m. that day. It will take place in the Ingram Room at the Lockhart-Taylor Center, 514 North Washington Street in Wadesboro. This workshop is hosted by Kaleo Supports. Refreshments will be provided.

Kaleo Supports states, "We believe people with disabilities have the right to meaningful and productive lives of their choosing. It is our intent to provide unique supports that help people to achieve their dreams. The role of staff should be a support to empower and encourage the person with whom they are assisting."

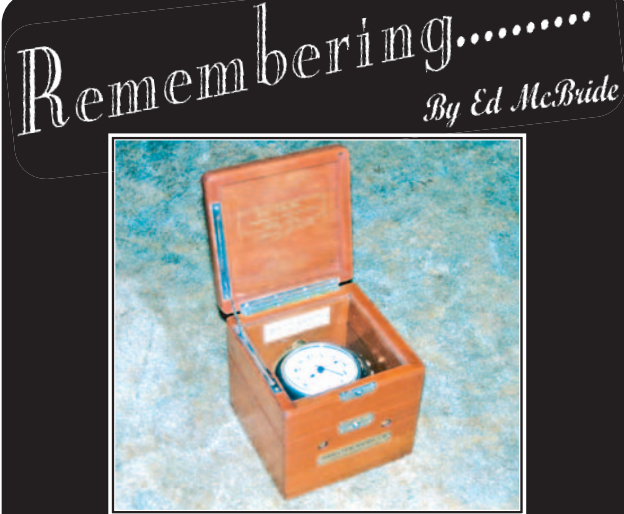

Kaleo Supports serves Montgomery, Moore, Richmond, Lee, Harnett, Hoke and Currituck Counties. They provide CAP waiver services in the Sandhill Center catchment area.

If you are interested in attending please call or email to RSVP. The telephone number is 910-630-2255 and the email address is contact@kaleosupports.com. www.kaleosupports.com.

Free Yoga Classes Offered

Certified personal fitness trainer Leslie Snow offers a free Introduction to Yoga-Based Fitness class each month, on the last Saturday. The classes are held at First Methodist Church in uptown Wadesboro, from 9 to 10 a.m. You can learn the principals of yoga, breathing and poses.

For more information contact Leslie at 704-272-9254 or leslie@lesliesnow.com.

After Sun Time...What?

Above is a picture of a ship's clock, and I would guess that it is probably more than a hundred years old...maybe more (You know...about Allen's age!)

I do remember such clocks - many of them were on World War II ships - and before. After the war's end, many surplus markets had not only clocks, but every conceivable thing from the ships and other equipment that was decommissioned. Bolts, nuts, furniture (office chairs, desks) - you name it!

The clock shown above was trashed when I began "my tour of duty" on it's case. I completely restored it with a new movement, mounted on the original brass mount. The case (or box) is made of solid mahogany!

I really wonder how all the "times matched up" back in the day - the many, many areas of time, between ships, land and air - and no computer, none of this "must have stuff" to live and keep in touch!! Oh well, the very idea!

Buy a Subscription to Wildlife in North Carolina Magazine, Win a Scope

Visitors to the N.C. Wildlife Resources Commission exhibit at the 32nd annual Dixie Deer Classic are eligible to win a Leupold scope when they take advantage of a subscription offer to Wildlife in North Carolina magazine.

Scheduled for March 2-4, the nationally recognized Dixie Deer Classic is an outdoor and white-tailed deer hunting showcase held at the State Fairgrounds in Raleigh. The Wildlife Commission exhibit will be located in the Exposition Center. Visitors will see the agency's mobile aquarium, a staple at many fishing and hunting events, featuring both warmwater and coldwater fishes found in North Carolina waters. The Sensory Safari, a kid-friendly wildlife exhibit-on-wheels, will give visitors the chance to learn about North Carolina's wildlife by listening to the sounds of birds, seeing animal mounts and handling pelts of some common North Carolina mammals.

Anyone who subscribes or renews a subscription to the award-winning Wildlife in North Carolina magazine at the show will be entered into a drawing for a Leupold VX-1 scope. The drawing will take place onsite at the close of the show on Sunday. You do not have to be present to win.

Wildlife in North Carolina is published bimonthly by the Wildlife Commission, with bonus spring and fall outdoors guides. Subscribers to the magazine enjoy exceptional color photography and great articles on hunting, fishing, natural areas, wildlife research and the state's environment in every issue.

Those who cannot attend the Dixie Deer Classic can purchase one or three year subscriptions online.

Since 1947, the N.C. Wildlife Resources Commission has been dedicated to the conservation and sustainability of the state's fish and wildlife resources through research, scientific management, wise use, and public input. The Commission is the state regulatory agency responsible for the enforcement of fishing, hunting, trapping and boating laws and provides programs and opportunities for wildlife-related educational, recreational and sporting activities. The Broken Chain

We little knew that day, God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, In death, we do the same.

You left us beautiful memories, Your love is still our guide. And although we cannot see you, You are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, And nothing seems the same, But as God calls us one by one, The chain will link again.

I broke our hearts to lose you. You did not go alone. For part of us went with you, The Day God called you home.

Cberishing every memory of our precious angel on bis "seventeenth birthday."
Loving you always and forever...
