Golden Sweetheart Event at BRLC

Burnsville Recreation and Learning Center celebrated their first Golden Sweetheart Event. The fun time was hosted by the BRLC volunteers. The BRLC Golden Sweethearts chosen were Rosa M. Brewer and Annie Townsend, each of the Burnsville Community. Both women enjoy shopping, eating out, and attending Poplar Spring Baptist Church. Mrs. Brewer and Mrs. Townsend, who have passed their eighties in years, received long stem chocolate roses donated by BRLC volunteers. The beautiful decorations of red and white was provided by Mary Clark and volunteer Linda Pratt. All of the delicious festive food was prepared and donated by BRLC volunteers. This event was an afternoon of laughter, games, and great old school music. Twisting, limbo and the locomotion were the physical activities during this great celebration. BRLC Director Carol Smith said, "We give thumbs up to Mr. Steven Flake for spinning the music, and the youth volunteers for their support and services as they served our Golden Sweethearts. Pictured here are Golden Sweethearts Rosa Brewer (left) and Annie Townsend.

Ready for some mouthwatering delicious barbeque? Well, Morven Volunteer Fire Department has you covered on Saturday, March 23rd. Come enjoy your choice of chicken, pork or beef cooked to perfection. They'll be serving from 11 a.m. until they run out! Plates cost $9, sandwiches $5, and a pound of barbeque is $9. All proceeds go to a great cause, the fire department! So come see your friends, make new friends and eat some great food too.
