

Scholarships Available for JazzArts Summer Music Camp

Charlotte's Jazz Arts Initiative is making scholarships available for the upcoming 2012 JazzArts Music Camp featuring international music educator Jamey Aebersold. The JazzArts Music Camp is an exciting one-week comprehensive music training program for students in grades 7 to 12 who are ready to get their jazz on! The camp is June 11 to 15, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. each day and will be held at Providence United Methodist Church, 2810 Providence Road, Charlotte, N.C. 28211.

"Spending time with a music educator the caliber of Jamey Aebersold will truly be a life-changing experience for young area musicians who are interested in learning more about jazz improvisation," said Jazz Arts Initiative executive director, Lonnie Davis. "We welcome students from all over North and South Carolina for a true hands-on learning experience they will never forget."

Camp tuition for the week is $265, but Jazz Arts Initiative is making scholarships available (up to 90% of the tuition cost) on a need-based sliding scale determined by family size and household income. The scholarship funds come by generous donations from the Jazz Diva Foundation and others. Funds are limited and available on a first come, first serve basis. For more information about the camp and available scholarships, email info@theJazzArts.org or call 704-336-9350. Pre-registration is required and can be done online at www.theJazzArts.org.

Jamey Aebersold is an internationally recognized musician and music educator who revolutionized the way jazz improvisation is taught through the introduction of his Play-A-Long series in 1967.
