Anson JROTC Cadets Visit Fort Bragg, Jump from 34 Foot Tower!

Recently 48 cadets of the Bearcat Battalion at Anson High School took a field trip to Ft. Bragg, home of the U.S. Army's famous 82nd Airborne Division. The cadets got to experience what it's like to dine at the Army dining facility as well as visit the 82nd Airborne Museum which contained the Hall of Hero's and many static displays of fixed winged and rotary aircraft, tanks and artillery pieces.

The highlight of the field trip was the cadets had the fortunate opportunity to exit the 34 foot jump tower which is used to teach paratroopers the correct way to exit an aircraft. This task required the cadets to stand in the door of a mock aircraft looking out at the horizon or down at the hard concrete 34 feet below them, which can be very intimidating for most people. The cadets then jumped out of the door and fell until the harness they were wearing caught the cable above them. They then slid approximately 50 yards down a cable to where they dismounted.

The following 43 cadets reached deep down and summoned up the courage to "jump" out the of the tower and earn their Jump Tower Ribbon: Tanasha Benjamin, Alvin Bennett, Tony Blalock, Imeen Breeden, Koydarius Burns, Maurice Caple, Jacob Caruso, Keziah Chambers, Mason Chance, Jarica Crain, Robert Crump, Charlie Dennison, Katlin Dumas, Diamond Eppolito, Shavonda Garris, Jada Hammonds, Alayza Jones, Joshua Jones, Gaven Kearney, Madison Lassiter, Bianca Liles, Rickasia Liles, Yasmin Lopez, N'asia Marshall, Timothy Marshall, Tyreke Massey, Tamiya Parson, Joshua Polk, Nakayla Robinson, Mahogany Sanderson, Ahleah Smith, Maclay Smith, Mason Smith, Mya Sturdivant, Odessa Tanner, Adam Teal, Caitlin Turner, Jada Wall, Syriniti Wall, Hykeem Williams, Caleb Williamson, John Williamson and Bryce Wilson. Congratulations to those cadets for this accomplishment.
