Mrs. Mildred T. Jones Celebrates her 100th Birthday

On Thursday, June 20 Mildred T. Jones will join the ever growing population of centenarians as she celebrates her 100th birthday with family and friends this Saturday, June 22. Born on June 20, 1919 in Morven, Mildred was one of 11 children born to the Late Charlie and Emma Teal. She was raised and educated in the Morven school system. Mildred graduated from Morven High School with honors. In 1940 Mildred decided to move to Hamlet, NC where she worked as a maid on the Seaboard Coastline Railroad for a period of time. Her home road was from Hamlet to Raleigh. She was later employed as a seamstress for a lingerie factory and a head cook for a Hamlet restaurant. Mildred was married to the late Thomas Jones, Jr. for more than 75 years. They were proud parents of seven children, 19 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren and six great great grandchildren.

While being a domestic engineer, she still sewed and cooked for her family, friends and community. She taught her children, family and friends the lessons of being an excellent gardener. Mildred always volunteered at Capital Highway, assisting with the needs of administrators, teachers and school support staff.

She still participates in church activities. Also, Mildred has been an active voter since May 17, 1958, and has never missed a chance to vote! She always emphasize the importance of voting. Being the family monarch and historian, Mildred have always shared this with her family: to put God first; have strict child rearing rules; great culinary skills; and to "Tuck a buck away."

Mr. Carl Edward Bennett

Mr. Carl Edward Bennett, 89, died peacefully on Monday, June 17, 2019, at Anson Health and Rehab in Wadesboro.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, June 20, 2019, at First Baptist Church, Wadesboro with Rev. Dr. Maner Tyson officiating. Interment will follow in Anson Memorial Park.

The family will greet friends from 5:00 until 7:00 p.m. today, Wednesday, June 19, 2019, at Leavitt Funeral Home and other times at the home of his son and daughter-in-law.

Carl was born May 11, 1930 in Anson County, a son of the late George Wilson Bennett and the late Mary Elizabeth Moore Bennett. He was a graduate of Deep Creek High School and Wingate College. He was a veteran of the United States Army, having served during the Korean Conflict. He was awarded the Korean Service Medal, two Bronze Stars, and the UN Service Medal.

As a young man Carl worked at B. C. Moore's Department Store, and it was there he met a young lady by the name of Ivah Lee Broome. Their courtship led to marriage that spanned 63 years. His career with B. C. Moore's would span 57 years, retiring as Corporate Secretary. He was a mentor to many of the employees at B. C. Moore's.

Carl grew up in the Deep Creek Community of Wadesboro and attended Deep Creep Baptist Church, where as a young boy he was baptized into church membership. After he and Ivah Lee were married they were members of Union Grove Baptist Church in Marshville, where he was ordained a Deacon, taught Sunday school, and sang in the choir.

The Bennett family later moved to Wadesboro, and then united with First Baptist Church, Wadesboro where he served the church as a Deacon and taught Sunday school for many years, until declining health.

Carl was truly devoted to providing the very best for his family. He and his wife were supportive of their families, both immediate and extended, in the role of caregivers. For all his accomplishments, those of being a devoted husband, father, and grandfather were among his greatest.

Surviving are his son Mark (Deneal) Bennett of Wadesboro; his granddaughters, Maria Bennett and Emily Bennett, both of Wadesboro; his brother Jay Bennett of Wadesboro; his sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law, Bobbie and Ray Stegall of Marshville, Carolyn and Robert Gaddy of Oakboro, Lucille Broome of Monroe and Joanne Parker of Marshville; and his nieces and nephews and their families.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife Ivah Lee Broome Bennett, by an infant sister and by brother George W. Bennett, Jr.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, P.O. Box 338, Thomasville, NC 27361.

The arrangements are in care of Leavitt Funeral Home. Online condolences may be made at www.leavittfh.com.
