

Andrew and Esta Ratliff Celebrate 50 Years Together

Andrew and Esta Ratliff celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Saturday, July 2. The event was held at Ambassador Health and Rehab in the dining room, with decorations featuring the traditional gold theme, accented by yellow roses and greenery. Guests enjoyed anniversary cake and an assortment of finger foods prepared by Betty Morris, Charlotte

Treadaway and friends and children of the couple. The occasion was hosted by family, friends and children, Kim Massey, Bryan Ratliff, Bill and Betty Morris, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, and grandchildren, Nicholas Johnson, Brandon Ratliff, Luke Ratliff and Noah Ratliff.

Andrew and Esta were married on Sunday, July 2, 1961 at Camden Presbyterian Church in Wadesboro, exchanging vows at high noon following the worship service by Rev. Robin Hurley.

Andrew's parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Ratliff. Esta's parents were the late Jessie and Hallie Morris.

Wildlife Public Hearing Dates

The N.C. Wildlife Resources Commission has set the schedule for its annual public hearings. Each year, the Commission adjusts hunting, fishing and trapping seasons and rules in response to wildlife population changes, wildlife conservation objectives, or public needs and desires. Public comments on proposed rule changes received through the public hearings process is a critical component in the decision making process.

All hearings begin at 7 p.m. The hearing for Anson County, which is in District 6, will be held on September 8 at the South Stanly High School in Norwood.

For more information on the rulemaking process, download "From Proposal to Regulation" at www.ncwildlife.org.
