Logan and Diane Goodwin Donate Stuffed Animals

For the sixth year in a row, Logan Goodwin, age ten, and grandmother, Diane Goodwin have given the Anson County Sheriff's Office a new supply of stuffed animal and figures to be given out to kids in crisis situations. The Sheriff's Office uses them and distributes them to other law enforcement agencies, DSS, and the Domestic Violence Coalition. These agencies along with the Sheriff's Office gives them out to children at accident scenes, police calls, domestic violence or any situation where small children are frightened and need something to "hug" or hold

North Carolina's Migratory Game Bird Seasons Set

The N.C. Wildlife Resources Commission has approved the season dates for dove and other webless migratory game birds, as well as September seasons for Canada geese and teal. Shooting hours for all species are 1/2 hour before sunrise until sunset. Dove hunters should make special note that shooting hours for doves this year will begin ½ hour before sunrise for the entire season, including opening day. This is a significant change from previous seasons, when shooting began at noon.

Each year, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service provides frameworks from which to choose the seasons and the Commission selects the actual dates within these guidelines. The Commission allowed public input on the seasons throughout June on its

The 2012-13 seasons for webless migratory game birds and waterfowl early seasons are:

- Dove (mourning & white winged) September 1-October 6 & November 19-November 24 & December 15-January 11. Daily bag 15, possession 30
- Gallinule & Moorhens September 1-November 9. Daily bag 15 (singly or in aggregate), possession 30
- Common Snipe November 14-February 28. Daily bag 8, possession 16
- Canada Goose (In that area west of US 17 only, expanded hunting methods are allowed for Canada geese. These include: a) shooting hours are extended to $\frac{1}{2}$ hour after sunset, b) unplugged guns are permitted, c) electronic calls are permitted. This applies to this area only during the month of September.) September 1-29. Daily bag 15, possession 30
- September Teal (blue-winged, green-winged and cinnamon teal) September 8-26 (east of US

The Commission also approved 2012-13 extended falconry season dates for webless
