

Anson County has Semi Pro Football Team - MPact

The Anson Mpack football team has recently been formed. This semi pro football team is a part on the United National Football League (UNFL). The players consist of males ages 18 and older. The team is a 501c3 nonprofit team organized to influence, motivate, and encourage a positive community. It was founded this year by William Thomas Polk, Sr.

Polk stated, "I started this semi pro football team to spark a difference in males for a positive change after the age of 18, instead of them falling victim to the jails or self depression."

There are a total of seven UNFL teams in our area. The team is a nonprofit organization, so it runs off of donations and volunteers - even down to the coaching staff. The Defensive Coach is Pop Buchanon, the Offensive Coach is Morris Gatewood. All MPact home games are played at Anson Middle School football field.

There are approximately 50 players on the team so far. If a male comes out who wants to play and is serious about making a change for the better, then they can join the team. The current Anson players are (last names listed first): Bennett, Jamie; Blakney, Vincent; Brown, Isaac; Buchanan, Jeremy; Buchanan, James; Burns, Jamison; Carr, Theodore; Clark, Patrick; Davis, Josh; Dunlap, Nicholas; Fall, Nick; Fordham, Donte; Furlow, Cedric; Garris, Leshawn; Grade, Myron; Ingram, Quamaine; Isaac, Frederick; Johnson, Akeem; Johnson, Johnntrell; Johnson, Sergio; Jones, Larell; Lindsey, Darius; Lindsey, Demetrius; Little, Jr., Vernon; McManus, Calvin; McNeill, George; McManus, McQuell; Moses, Mathew; Patterson Jr, Donte; Perry Jr., David; Polk, Jackie; Polk, William; Ratliff, Orlando; Rattliff, Antonio; Rodgers, Michael; Rorie, Dennis; Rorie, Earl; Rue, Charles; Sellers, Ronald; Smith, Jr., Darren; Stanback, Tony; Staton, Deric; Sturdivant, EJ; Teal, Justin; Tillman, Travis; Wall, Montray; Wallace Jr., George; and Willoughby, Quentin.

MPact won their game against Fear, 51-14. It was played at Joe Pop Stadium in Mooresville on August 3. On a roll, MPact beat the Monroe Hurricanes on August 10, 35-0. In that game MPact defense did a great job utilizing their talent to shut down the Hurricane offense. MPact offense was led by quarterbacks Earl Rorie and Keem Johnson who both threw two touchdown passes each. Players of note: Patrick Clark had 12 tackles and 5 sacks, Sergio Clark ran for 2 touchdowns, Jackie Polk exploded with 8 carries, 123 rushing yards, a touchdown and a 2 point conversion, Calvin McManus received for 100 yards and had a TD, and Darren Smith had a TD.

MPact plays this Saturday against a team called Fear at Anson Middle School at 4 p.m. Admission is $5 for adults and $3 for children. Donations are greatly appreciated as well. Come see this dynamic new series in action! See what the Mpack team is all about!

The UNFL was co-founded by Jordan Taylor of the Nebraska Lawdaws and Jimmy Ross of the Kansas City Panthers. James Littlejohn rounds out the 3 man executive board of the UNFL. Between these three gentlemen, the UNFL has almost 50 years of minor league experience to offer it's teams. The UNFL operates on modified NFL rules. The season runs from late July until the last week of September, with a "Bowl" style playoff picture that will be "National." In addition, the league will focus on creating a high level, safe environment for its players to play in on Saturdays. The UNFL focuses on sportsmanship and integrity while competing for victories. There is a strong players association that is involved in that process of both choosing and supporting it's all-stars.

If you would like to donate, volunteer, play, or learn more about MPact and the UNFL contact William Polk at 980-213-8550 or Ella Webster at 704-694-8905 or e_webster26@yahoo.com. The mailing address is Anson MPact, PO Box 122, Lilesville NC 28091.
