

Ansonia Spotlight is on Brittany & Jason Price

This is a release from the Ansonia Theatre: Brittany and Jason Price are two of the biggest volunteers at the Ansonia Theatre. Brittany started doing costumes in 2014 at the theatre and hasn't stopped since. Her creations have taken the shows to the next level...and they keep getting better with each new show!

Brittany met and married her husband Jason Price, and quickly got him involved helping with costumes. Jason soon started acting in productions, turning in fantastic performances in Lone Star and Dearly Departed. Together they have spent countless hours bringing their passion to life. The Ansonia's recent production of Gypsy's costumes rivaled those in a Broadway production!

We love you, Brittany & Jason!!!

Drinking Habits (October 4 - 13) Accusations, mistaken identities, and romances run wild in this traditional, laugh-out-loud farce. Two nuns at the Sisters of Perpetual Sewing have been secretly making wine to keep the convent's doors open, but Paul and Sally, reporters and former fiancées, are hot on their trail. They go undercover as a nun and priest, but their presence, combined with the addition of a new nun, spurs paranoia throughout the convent that spies have been sent from Rome to shut them down. Wine and secrets are inevitably spilled as everyone tries to preserve the convent and reconnect with lost loves.

Anson Women's League Awards Four Scholarships

The Anson Women's League recognized their 2019 scholarship winners at their August 13 meeting. Two of the 2019 winners, Mili Ngwyen, who is attending Wingate University and Vontarya McBride, attending Winston Salem State University, were not able to attend this meeting but were recognized by the members. Recipient Jordan Sikes is attending Lander University and will be playing softball there. Grace Morgan won the Eloise Rywak Memorial Scholarship, which is also managed by the Anson Women's League. She is attending UNC-Chapel Hill. All recipients expressed their appreciation to AWL for awarding the $750 scholarships to assist with college education expenses.

Janine Rywak, who serves on the scholarship committee, said that the number of qualified and deserving applicants for these scholarships made it very difficult to select the recipients.

In addition to providing scholarships, Anson Women's League supports other agencies and projects, including managing the Christmas Shop at Wadesboro Elementary School, Barn Blast, Clover Crawl, Anson County Domestic Violence, and more. The AWL Soup Luncheon, held annually in February, is the primary fundraising event each year. Dancing With the Stars, a new fundraiser for Anson Women's League in 2019, generated a lot of community support to help fund projects and scholarships that will be distributed throughout the upcoming year.

Please consider joining Anson Women's League. It is open to any woman who would like to be a part of an organization that supports the needs of Anson County. Meetings are held monthly at Twin Valley Golf Club.

For more information please contact President Bonnie Morgan at 704-695-5373.
