Lucky Chops Brass Band Performs at Theatre on the Green in Cheraw on September 29

The Cheraw Arts Commission presents the high energy brass band Lucky Chops in September. On Thursday, September 29 the New York City based group comes to Cheraw and will perform at the Theatre on the Green at 7:00 p.m.

Redefining what it means to be a brass band, Lucky Chops stormed onto the scene in 2015 with the help of millions of viewers around the globe. Together this group of six talented individuals has created a unique sound and energy which has resonated worldwide with viral success, launching a career that is now headed toward untold heights.

With roots going back to New York City's LaGuardia Arts High School, the band started out performing on the streets of New York and in small venues around the city. After years of exploring a variety of musical directions and styles, the band realized that they had created something so powerful that it needed to be pursued at all costs. The group then took their act to one of the most energetic, evolving and continuously pulsating venues in the world: the New York City subway system.

Tickets can be purchased in advance at the Cheraw Community Center - 200 Powe Street. Price is $15 for a single ticket and $25 for 2 tickets. Doors will open at 6:30pm. Contact the Cheraw Arts Commission at 843-537-8420 x 12 for additional information.
