BRLC Offering Educational Sessions on Food Services

You can earn a ServSafe Certificate at BRLC

If you are interested in earning a certificate in food services, whether Food Handling or Food Management, Burnsville Recreation & Learning Center (BRLC) encourages you to call today. This educational adventure will start Thursday, September 17, and runs from 2:00 to 5:30 p.m.

A ServSafe Manager's Certificate can increase your opportunities for employment in local, state or federal food service departments, as well as employment in restaurants. With this knowledge and certificate you can improve health inspection scores by practicing safety and preventing food borne illness in your establishment.

You may enroll the first day of session or in advance. Space will be limited due to the pandemic. Participants' temperatures will be checked before entering each session. Masks will be made available for those who arrive without a mask.

Let's continue to grow and help our neighbors. For more information contact BRLC at 704-778-7478. BRLC is located at 13349 Highway 742 North in Burnsville, across from the Fire Department.

Habitat for Humanity Urgent Home Repair Program Applications

Union-Anson County Habitat for Humanity's Urgent Home Repair program is taking applications now through September 30. The program is sponsored by the North Carolina Housing Finance Agency (NCFHA) with funds provided by the N.C. Housing Trust Fund. About Urgent Home Repair - Eligibility In order to qualify for the program, the eligible household must own their own home, fall within the specific income limits (specified by NCFHA) and be able to prove that they have one or more qualifying needs. The needs outlined by NCFHA are defined as...

- A person that is at least 62 years of age or older
- A person that is handicapped or disabled
- A single-parent with at least one (1) dependent child in the residence
- A family with five (5) or more persons
- A child below six (6) years of age with elevated blood levels
- A military veteran

Union-Anson County Habitat for Humanity will be receiving funds from the North Carolina Trust Fund to make repairs for eligible households. The repairs must be considered harmful, deadly, or an issue that would make a homeowner move out of their home. This program is not for cosmetic repairs such as painting or landscaping.

To contact download an application visit: www.unionhabitat.org. In Anson County Habitat for Humanity (ReStore) is located at 222 North Greene Street in Wadesboro. The telephone number is 704-465-2030.
