Mr. Darrel D. Cook

Mr. Darrel D. Cook, 51, passed away on September 1, 2014, at his residence.

A celebration of life was held on Friday, September 5, 2014, at New Life Church in Wadesboro.

Mr. Cook was born on June 25, 1963, in Fayetteville. He was a truck driver with the North Carolina Department of Transportation.

He was preceded in death by his father.

Mr. Cook is survived by his mother, Rosie Hinson Lewis; his wife Vanessa L. Cook of Peachland; two brothers, Buddy Cook of Belmont and Wayland Cook of Chadbourne; and two sisters, Cathy Beaman of Troy and Ann Cook of Lancaster, SC.

Mrs. Mattie Tyson Gaddy

Mrs. Mattie Tyson Gaddy, 85, passed away peacefully at Ambassador Health and Rehab of Wadesboro on Friday, September 5, 2014, with her family by her side.

Memorial services were held Tuesday, September 9, 2014, in Calvary Baptist Church with Rev. Michael Bye and Rev. Fred Thompson officiating.

Mattie Easter Tyson was born April 1, 1929, in Ansonville, a daughter of the late Merritt Pearl and Ethel Maner Tyson. She often joked that she was glad she wasn't born at Thanksgiving or she would have been "Mattie Thanksgiving Tyson!"

Survivors include her husband of 60 years, Joe E. Gaddy, of the home; a son, Ray Gaddy (Mary Beth) of Wadesboro; two grandchildren, Christie Thuleen (Tony) and Mark Lisenby (Jennifer); three great-grandchildren, Ava Thuleen, Grant Thuleen and Anistyn Lisenby; two brothers, Robert "Shorty" Tyson (Dot) of Wadesboro and Leo Tyson of Polkton; three sisters, Jennie Thomas of Wadesboro, Alice Warrick of Rockingham and Ella Hargett of Wingate; and a number of nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, Mattie was preceded in death by her brothers, Marvin Tyson, Pearl Benton "Buddy" Tyson, Grover Tyson and Harold Tyson.

Mattie grew up in the Ansonville community and graduated Ansonville High School in 1948. She went to work as an operator for the Anson Telephone Company in 1950, and after forty-one years of service and a multitude of technological and company name changes, retired as a customer service representative from Alltel Carolina in 1991. Mattie was a devoted and faithful member of All Souls/Calvary Episcopal Church and several of its ancillary groups.

The family would especially like to thank Ambassador Health and Rehab and Dr. Victoria Rommel for their wonderful love and excellent care shown to Mattie over these last months.

Memorials may be made to one's charity of choice.

Leavitt Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. Online condolences may be made at leavittfuneralhomewadesboro.com.
