CROP Hunger Walk is Oct. 20

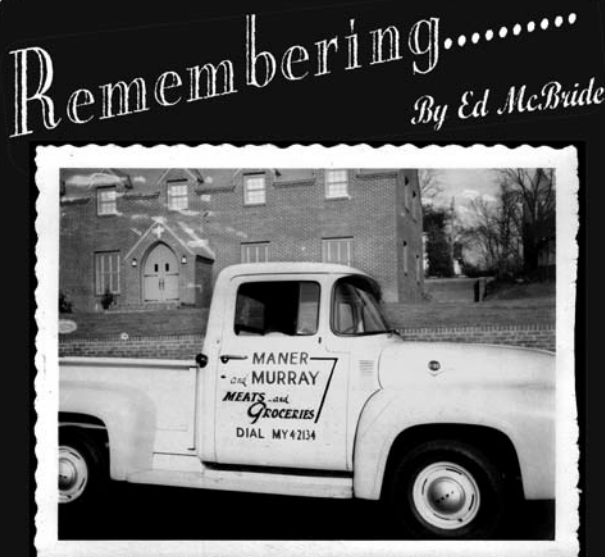

The Anson County CROP Hunger Walk will occur on Sunday, October 20. The Walk begins at 2 p.m. at First United Methodist Church, located on the corner of East Morgan and South Green Streets. It will proceed down Morven Road to the Wadesboro Park, and return to the First Methodist Church.

You may walk all or part of the route. Registration is at 1:30 p.m. You may also register and raise money online. Go to www.cropwalk.org and click on the Sign Up! Button.

CROP means Communities Responding to Overcome Poverty. CROP Hunger Walks are neighbors walking together to take a stand against hunger in our world. They are sponsored by Church World Service (CWS), an international relief, development, and refugee resettlement agency. Money raised by CROP Hunger Walks nationwide is used by CWS to provide food, medical care, disaster relief, and self-help development for needy people around the world as well as local hunger fighting agencies.

25% of the money raised in the Anson County CROP Hunger Walk will go to fight hunger in this community. The agencies chosen by the local CROP Hunger Walk Planning Team to receive funds this year are Anson Crisis Ministry and Feed My Lambs.

Please consider walking, donating, volunteering, or helping in any way to support the Anson CROP Hunger Walk on October 20. For more information about CROP Hunger

Maner and Murray

This was one of many grocery stores in downtown Wadesboro at a time when not only were there at least a dozen grocery stores, but also clothing stores, banks, jewelry stores, automobile dealerships, dime stores - in fact most any item that you needed was "right downtown!"

About the above picture - this was a new Ford pickup that I lettered for Maner and Murray over fifty years ago. They even delivered groceries and meats to their customers all over town.

Look at all the changes downtown now - no grocery stores, no "dime" stores, no clothing stores - it is indeed a different era of time!

Fleet Maner is, I remember, among the last ones of the "Maner and Murray folks!" Thanks Fleet.

Ansonian Adventures Preorders

Are you ready for an adventure? The Anson County Chamber of Commerce is in the final stages of designing their new board game that is all about Anson County, Ansonian Adventures.

You can still pre-order the game for only $35, but this introductory price will only last two more weeks. Starting on October 14 the games will cost $50 each. The game will be fun to play, and will be a keepsake for Ansonians and anyone with a connection to Anson County.

Chamber Director Lynn Edwards said, "If you think you will need several games for family, friends, employees, customers or Christmas gifts, save some money and get your order in now! If we have your pre-order in before October 14th you will be guaranteed the $35 per game intro price when you pick your order up."

To order a game call the Chamber at 704-694-4181 for information or visit www.ansoncounty.org.
