

Peachland-Polkton Elementary School Students Donated 2,665 Cans of Food
Students also donated 248 toys to Toys for Tots!

Peachland-Polkton Elementary School students recently held a Canned Food Drive and participated in the Toys for Tots donation program. Students collected 2,665 cans to be donated to the local food bank, Feed My Lambs, and they brought in 248 toys for the Toys for Tots. Pictured here are students displaying some of the cans and toys donated for these events.

Commissioners Tour New Emergency Services Building

On the Monday before the November County Commissioners' meeting Commissioners Vancine Sturdivant and Jarvis Woodburn toured the new Emergency Services Building. Pictured here, Sturdivant and Woodburn (center) are being shown some of the technology capabilities by IT Chief Randy Gullede. The county has occupied the building since February 2014 with EMS and Emergency Management. The new 911 wing came online on September 30.
