Mr. Olin S. "Lin" Anderson

Mr. Olin S. "Lin" Anderson, 74, went home to be with the Lord on Wednesday afternoon, November 29, 2017.

A service with Military Honors was held on Saturday, December 2, 2017, at Forestville United Methodist Church in Lilesville. Following the service there was a "Celebration of Life and Visitation" at Leavitt Funeral Home.

Born in Raleigh, NC on May 3, 1943, Lin was the son of the late Olin S. and Bernice Parker Anderson. He graduated from Anson High School in 1961 and NC State University in 1966 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Industrial Engineering.

Lin married his high school sweetheart Carroll Capell in 1967, and they moved to Vacaville, CA. Lin was stationed with the USAF 75th Military Airlift Command as a C-141 Pilot for five years of the Vietnam War. Captain Anderson flew out of Travis Air Force Base, and was awarded the "No PAC 1 - 100 Missions" medal among others. In 1972 Lin and Carroll made their home in San Diego, CA where he flew for Pacific Southwest Airlines.

In 1980 Lin and Carroll returned to Wadesboro to operate the Capell family business, Carl's Food Center. After Carl's burned, they rebuilt and operated the grocery business until 1985. Lin joined Selectronics with his vast engineering and mechanical background from growing up at Blewett Falls hydro-electric plant.

In 1995 Lin joined Carroll at Anderson Real Estate where he and Carroll treasured working side by side as Brokers for the last 22 years.

Lin's passions included flying and water skiing at Blewett Falls Lake, even over the 2017 summer! Every day his life showed his genuine love for his family, country and ALL mankind.

Lin served as President of the Wadesboro Rotary Club '92-'93, being honored twice with the International Rotary Paul Harris Fellow Award.

He was preceded in death by his father Olin S. Anderson, mother Bernice Parker Anderson and brother Richard "Dick" Parker Anderson.

Survivors include his beloved wife of 50 years, Carroll Capell Anderson; two children, Rye Anderson Myers (Eddie) of West Melbourne, FL; and Dru Capell Anderson (Kristin) of Lilesville; four grandchildren with one additional expected blessing, Ali Payton (8) and Avery Caylor Myers (6), Braelyn Selah (3) and Hayden Jon Anderson (2); and his sister Rebecca Anderson "Andy" Quindland (Ivar) of Marietta, GA.

Memorials may be made to the charity of your choice.

Leavitt Funeral Home served the Anderson Family. Online condolences may be made at www.leavittfh.com.

Mrs. Juanita Moore Tarleton Atkinson

Mrs. Juanita Moore Tarleton Atkinson, 93, died Friday, December 1, 2017, at Anson Health and Rehab in Wadesboro.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, December 6, 2017, at First Baptist Church, Wadesboro with Dr. Robert Hunter, Jr. and Rev. Tom Kakadelis officiating. Interment will follow in Anson Memorial Park. The family will greet friends beginning at 10:30 a.m. prior to the service at the church.

Juanita was born August 10, 1924, in Anson County, and was a daughter of the late Roy Brack Moore and the late Nellie Mae Dabbs Moore. She was a 1942 graduate of Wadesboro High School.

She was first married to Glyn Tarleton who was killed in action during World War II. She would later marry Robert D. "Bob" Atkinson who preceded her in death in 2009.

Juanita and Bob owned and operated Bob's Ceramics for 17 years, and she would later work part time at Subway and Lacy's. She was a craft enthusiast and always eager to learn a new craft. She took an upholstery course through the mail and covered many pieces of furniture. Her upholstery work was later written up in a craft magazine. She also took cake decorating, computer classes and art classes. She made many wedding and birthday cakes, and also painted enough flowers to give each of her family members.

Juanita became a member of First Baptist Church in 1949, and remained a devoted and active member until declining health. She served as both a Cub Scout and Girl Scout leader, was the director of the GA's and crowned 11 girls in 1957. Due to her leadership of the Senior Girl Scouts, she was instrumental in organizing the first nurse's aide program at the hospital, and a number of her girls went on to become nurses themselves. She was also responsible for decorating the church bulletin boards and providing flowers for the tables in the fellowship hall.

Surviving are her son and daughter-in-law, Bobby and Edith Gaddy Atkinson of Albemarle; her grandchildren, Heather Sutoris of Concord, Gretchen (Jared) Theissens of Winston-Salem, Scott (Stephanie) Wheeler of Tampa, FL and Melissa (Darren) Preslar of Norwood; and her great-grandchildren, Alexis Sutoris, Gavin Theissens, Skylyn Wheeler, Seaira Wheeler, Bodie Wheeler, Wyatt Preslar and a new baby boy Preslar who is due to arrive any day. It is true, when God takes a family member, He sends another.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her daughter Frances Tarleton Wheeler and her sister Nellie Moore.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to First Baptist Church, Decorating Committee, P.O. Box 423, Wadesboro, NC 28170.

The arrangements are in care of Leavitt Funeral Home. Online condolences may be made at www.leavittfh.com.

Mr. Kenneth Clarence "Kenny" Martin

Mr. Kenneth Clarence "Kenny" Martin, 61, died Wednesday, November 29, 2017, at Duke University Hospital in Durham, NC.

Funeral services were held on Sunday, December 3, 2017, in the Chapel of Leavitt Funeral Home with Rev. Rocky Carpenter officiating. Interment followed in Lilesville Cemetery.

Kenny was born July 14, 1956, in Anson County, a son of the late Thomas Sandy Martin and the late Katherine Ricketts Martin. He was the maintenance supervisor at Ambassador Health and Rehab.

He served for a number of years on the Ansonville Town Council and Ansonville Fire Department and Ansonville Rescue Squad. He was a member of Peachland Gospel Tabernacle.

Surviving are his wife Becky Caudle Martin; his children, Karen Martin and Kyle Martin, both of Ansonville; his grandchildren, Riley Jones of Ansonville and Benzlee Martin of Wadesboro; his brothers and sisters, Tommy (Linda) Martin, Johnny (Linda) Martin and Kathy (Howard) Broome, all of Wadesboro, Vernon (Pat) Martin of Franklinville, Jimmy (Penny) Martin of Monroe, Judy (Ray) Byrum of Peachland and Lynn (Brian) Zimmerman of Morven; his sisters-in-law, Diane Martin of Wadesboro and Sharon (Mark) Smotherman of Clemson, SC; and his nieces and nephews and their families.

Kenny enjoyed his time spent working at Ambassador Health and Rehab and he dearly loved the residents there. Because of that, the family suggests memorials be made to Ambassador Health and Rehab, Family Council, 2051 Country Club Rd., Wadesboro, NC 28170.

The arrangements were in care of Leavitt Funeral Home. Online condolences may be made at www.leavittfh.com.

Mr. James Adrian Pippin, Jr.

Mr. James Adrian Pippin, Jr. passed away on November 22, 2017.

A memorial service to honor Jim at the First Presbyterian Church of Rockingham was held on Sunday, December 3, 2017. The service was conducted by Rev. Dwight Williams with the addition of Rev. Rufus McLean and Dr. James Clark, Jr.

Jim was born in Rockingham on August 6, 1954, the son of the late James Adrian Pippin, Sr. and Juanita Rorie Pippin. He graduated from Rockingham High School in 1972, and earned a B.A. in education from Appalachian State University in 1976. He later earned a Masters of Education from Columbus State University in Columbus, Georgia. Jim was a junior high and middle school social studies teacher in the Muscogee County school district for over twenty years before returning to Rockingham to complete his teaching career at Rockingham Middle School. He was honored as the Teacher of the Year in Muscogee County and Richmond County. He was a Teacher in Space Candidate and trained with NASA. He was a part of the Exchange Teacher Program, teaching in New Zealand, Japan and Scotland.

Jim also had another career as a staff member and later on as the camp director at Four H Camps Anita Altra, Betsy Jeff Penn and Millstone. This career spanned many years, and Jim continued in volunteer capacity until his death. Jim began his love of camping and camp life in his youth as a Boy Scout, where he earned the Eagle Scout Award.

Jim was a member of First Presbyterian Church of Rockingham. He was a member of the Richmond County Historical Society, on the board of directors for the Rankin Museum in Ellerbe, NC, and also on the board of directors for the Ellis - House Museum, the Four H museum at Camp Millstone.

Jim believed that we should value the past, make wise use of today and be inspired to reach for the stars tomorrow.

Jim is survived by his maternal aunts, Rowena R. Tarlton of Wadesboro and Mary R. Daniels of Clinton, SC, and cousins.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests that donations be made to the NC Agricultural Foundation c/o Millstone- Ellis House Museum, Campus Box 7645, Raleigh, NC 27695 of The First Presbyterian Church, 904 Fayetteville Road, Rockingham, NC 28379 or Rankin Museum, 131 Church Street Ellerbe, NC 28338.

Online condolences may be made at www.watsonking-funeralhome.com. Watson-King Funeral Home in Rockingham is serving the Pippin family.

EMERGENCY FOOD AND SHELTER PROGRAMS PHASE 34

Anson County Emergency Food and Shelter Programs has been granted supplemental funding through the U.S. Department of Homeland Security's Federal Emergency Management Agency's (FEMA) Emergency Food and Shelter Program (EFSP).

Chaired by FEMA and consisting of representatives from the American Red Cross, Catholic Charities USA, National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., The Salvation Army, United Jewish Communities and United Way Worldwide, The National Board of the EFSP awards funds appropriated by Congress to help expand the capacity of food and shelter programs in high-need areas around the country.

Funds previously awarded to Anson County have helped serve the needs of many Ansonians, having been distributed to Anson Crisis Ministry, Feed My Lambs, Greater Deliverance Food Pantry, South Anson Community Outreach Ministry, Wadesboro Area Community Outreach Ministry, Ebenezer Baptist Church and Burnsville Recreation and Learning Center.

The EFSP Local Board, comprised of representatives from the County of Anson, Anson United Way, local chapter of American Red Cross, area church organizations, ministerial associations, homeless shelter(s), and other organizations, is responsible for making funding recommendations based on applications received from qualifying service agencies in the County. Under the terms of the Federal grant, local agencies chosen to receive funds must:

- 1) be private, voluntary, non-profits or units of government;
- 2) be eligible to receive federal funds;
- 3) have an accounting system;
- 4) practice nondiscrimination;
- 5) have demonstrated the capability to deliver emergency food and/or shelter programs; and,
- 6) if a private, voluntary organization, must have a voluntary board.

Applications are currently being accepted for in preparation for Phase 34 of the Program. Qualifying (private voluntary or public) agencies are encouraged to submit an application as soon as possible to
