messages of hope to be sent to the 52 US hostages being held captive in Iran, as well as a story about a local family's Christmas miracle, which both made national news. Marv used the airwaves to raise hundreds of thousands of dollars for numerous families and charities throughout his career. While working at WKZQ in the 1980's he helped raise over $100,000 alone for the Muscular Dystrophy Association, and presented checks on two occasions personally to Jerry Lewis. In order to accomplish this he participated in the 7-11 "Roof-a-thon" fundraising events where he actually lived on the roof of a 7-11 store for a total of 17 days and nights. During the MDA fundraiser, South Carolina Senior Senator Strom Thurmond stopped by and was lifted to Marv's perch aboard a "cherry picker" to congratulate him for his efforts.

Marv extended his charity work across the US into the Hawaiian Islands in the early 1990's. While at KSSK radio in Honolulu, Hawaii he raised nearly $7,000 for Toys for Tots by making his first ever sky dive live on the air. Following his 13,000 foot freefall he presented a check to a representative from Kaneohe Marine Corp. During Operation Desert Shield he traveled to the Persian Gulf to record holiday greetings for US soldiers to bring back home to their families.

In 1993 he returned to the east coast and eventually settled back down in Myrtle Beach. He worked with WKZQ again before accepting a morning show position working alongside Bobbi Jones and Holli Heart at Gator 107.9. While at Gator he and his co-hosts were involved in several more charities such as disaster relief for tornado victims in Arkansas. He also worked as emcee at the Palace Theater for several years. He spent the last few years working in sales and training with Bluegreen Resorts and Holiday Inn Vacations.

Marv was an incredibly motivating individual who shared his heart with everyone he met. He always had a story and a smile to share with anyone. From songwriter to teacher, Marv was a beloved husband, father, mentor and friend, blessed with a voice and heart of gold.

He is survived by his wife, Ida A.D. Clark; his son, William "Cody" Tyson Clark; his daughter, Kimberly Ann Clark; his father, William Marvin Clark, Sr.; his brothers, Charles Timothy Clark (Janet) and Alan Ray Clark (Gaye); his grandchildren, Rachael Leigh Day and Christopher Alan Day; and longtime family friend and "sister," Debbie Terry Baker. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the family's GoFundMe campaign at www.gofundme.com/marvclark.
