The inaugural Bowman Senior High School Class of 1968 will celebrate their 50th reunion this Saturday, December 15 at Anson Middle School, formerly Bowman Senior High School. The theme of the reunion will be a prom-like theme.

The event will begin at Anson Middle School with a tour of the school and t-shirts distributed to classmates, from 12 to 1 p.m. The reunion will continue at Anson Middle with a "meet and greet" from 6 to 7 p.m., followed by the prom-like celebrations from 7 until 11 p.m. There will be music from the 60's, souvenirs, photos, heavy hors'doeuvres and dancing with a DJ. The attire is semi-formal.

For additional information please contact Dr. Josephine Leak Harris at 600 Hillsborough Road, Carrboro, NC 27510-1230, via email at jharr122@ncsu.edu or call 919-619-9032 or 919-967-2650.

Remembering.....
By Ed McBride

McBride's Radio & Sign Service

This one dates back a few years to January 1948 - a time before television, not too many radios - many were battery powered, and all were tube type sets (no transistors or any of this "low power drain" stuff). Also, the record players were 78 rpm. Can you imagine an era of time without any of today's gadgets? It was even a day before direct telephone dialing - you told the operator to "ring up" your number!

Our shop was in the Fenton building (still there, located at 210 South Rutherford Street in Wadesboro). We had 25 feet of rented space. I worked on radios, small appliances - it cost a dollar for me to furnish and install a new power cord!! Signs were more seasonal - like summertime to work outside - fresh air too!

The above picture was of our Christmas window. I think it was about 1949. I had painted the window as if "Santa was looking out!" And, about that Santa - it was a "well used" mannequin from Belk's third floor "junk" pile, and given to me by Mr. P. P. Scarborough. The work really began then. Lucy made Santa a new suit, complete with his white beard/trim! There were some packages for Santa to deliver, and it was a nice Christmas window!

Well, that was a part of the "early days beginning!"

State of North Carolina Accepting Applications for Annual Student Internship Program Until January 14

Celebrating 50 Years of Creating Opportunities in 2019

Next year will mark the 50th anniversary of the State of North Carolina Internship Program. Since its establishment in 1969, more than 4,000 internship opportunities have been awarded to North Carolina college students. The internship program is open to all North Carolina residents attending a college, university, technical institute or community college.

Students interested in applying for summer 2019 internships have until Monday, January 14, 2019 to submit their application. The 2019 State Government Internship Guide provides opportunities that are now available to view online on the NC Council for Women & Youth Involvement website, ncadmin.nc.gov.

The N.C. Department of Administration's Council for Women & Youth Involvement (CFWYI) administers the Internship program, which runs May 20 through July 26, 2019. Interns earn a stipend of $8.25 per hour and work 40-hours per week for 10-weeks during the summer.

"This is a valuable program for college students to learn more about state government and to make a difference in North Carolina," said N.C. Department of Administration Secretary Machel Sanders. "It also plays a valuable role in preparing North Carolinians for the jobs of today and tomorrow."

Governor Cooper's State of North Carolina Internship Program offers students real-world experience in a wide range of state government workplaces. Internships provide opportunities for students to work in their chosen field and to consider careers in public service.

"These internships can open doors for students interested in careers in public service," said CFWYI Internship Coordinator Candace Dudley. "The interns bring fresh ideas and perspectives to state government."

The internships integrate education, career development and public service. Opportunities exist in numerous recognized fields of study, from accounting to zoology. Interns also will participate in other activities that broaden their knowledge of public service and state government, such as seminars and site visits.

Interns are selected through a competitive process overseen by the N.C. Internship Council. Selection is based on a thorough review of applications, including academic records and interest in state government. Qualified candidates may be selected to interview with prospective supervisors, and matches are made.

For more information, please visit the N.C. Council for Women & Youth Involvement Office online (ncadmin.nc.gov) or contact the program coordinator, Candace Dudley at 919-807-4407. Information also is available in campus career services or cooperative education offices.
