Be a Partner with Dolly: Support the Barn Blast!

The Anson County Partnership for Children provides Dolly Parton's Imagination Library to 1,035 registered children birth to age 5 in Anson County. The partnership's goal is to register all 1,500 children in this age group in Anson County. All the funds raised at the Partnership's annual Barn Blast are used to pay for Dolly Parton's Imagination Library and for other literacy programs for Anson County's children.

You can help young children in Anson County to have books in their homes by supporting the Barn Blast on Friday, January 27 from 6 p.m. to 12 midnight. Tickets are still available at $45 per person by calling the Anson County Partnership for Children at 704-694-4036 or coming by the Partnership office at 117 South Greene Street, Wadesboro. Business sponsorships, donations in any amount and auction item donations are welcome and needed to make the Barn Blast a success.

In 1996 Dolly Parton launched an exciting new effort, Dolly Parton's Imagination Library, to benefit the children of her home county in East Tennessee. Dolly's vision was to foster a love of reading among her county's preschool children and their families by providing them with the gift of a specially selected book each month. By mailing high quality, age-appropriate books directly to their homes, she wanted children to be excited about books and to feel the magic that books can create. Moreover, she could insure that every child would have books, regardless of their family's income.

Dolly's Imagination Library became so popular that in the year 2000 she announced that she would make the program available to any community that was willing to partner with her to support it locally. Dolly Parton's Imagination Library has gone from just a few dozen books to nearly 40 million books mailed to children in the United States, Canada and the United Kingdom! Currently over 1,600 local communities provide the Imagination Library to almost 700,000 children each month. Research has shown that Dolly Parton's Imagination Library drastically improves early childhood literacy for children enrolled in the program. Further studies have shown improved scores during early literacy testing.

Be a partner with Dolly! Help to provide books for all the young children in Anson County by supporting the Barn Blast!
