Anson High School Varsity Cheerleader Morgan Burr Cheers in London New Year Parade

This past summer Morgan Burr, a junior at Anson County Early College and Varsity Cheerleader for Anson High School, along with Anson Varsity Cheerleaders attended a Universal Cheer Association (UCA) camp at the University of North Carolina - Chapel Hill. Some of the cheerleaders at the camp were selected to try out for All-American. According to UCA, the definition of All-American is "an individual award to those who display superior technical skills, leadership, and strong personal values."

Morgan was selected and won All-American! Because of her selection, Morgan was invited to cheer in London's New Year's Day parade on January 1, 2023. She spent a week in London along with the other All-American participants from all over the US and was able to tour St Paul's Cathedral, Westminster Abbey, Windsor, Buckingham Palace and Kensington Palace. She even got to see Queen Elizabeth's crown!

This group of cheerleaders were able to be in and perform during London's New Year's Day parade. The parade is around 2 miles long with 500,000 spectators and around 300 million TV viewers.

Morgan is the daughter of Chris Burr, and the granddaughter of Mary Stovall and the late Stanley (Buddy) Stovall of Wadesboro and Casey and Linda Burr of Georgetown, SC. She has a sister, Taylor Burr, and a brother, Jackson Burr.

Tax Tips for Forest Landowners: 2022 Tax Year

As a private forest landowner, you may start to think about timber taxes only after having a timber sale. However, each forest activity you conduct can have tax implications. Generally, all income received is taxable unless excluded by tax law, and nothing is deductible unless a provision allows it. Understanding the forest-related provisions and integrating tax planning into your forest management can help lower your overall taxes and increase disposable income.

A tax tip guide is available online at ncforests.gov. It is intended to be an informational and educational resource for you and your tax advisor, but is not intended as financial, tax, or legal advice. Please consult with your tax advisor concerning your particular tax situation. The information is current as of November 28, 2022.
