Soup's On! Women's League Luncheon is February 10

Homemade soup, toasted cheese & desserts team up for a very good cause

If winter weather has you craving comfort food and an excuse to skip cooking lunch, the Anson Women's League has just the answer. Tickets are officially on sale for the League's Annual Soup Luncheon, the group's main fundraiser of the year supporting its many community projects...and yes, the soup really is that good.

The luncheon will be held Tuesday, February 10, from 11:00 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. at First Baptist Church on Lee Avenue in Wadesboro. The menu is a tried-and-true favorite featuring delicious homemade vegetable soup, a perfectly toasted cheese sandwich, and a homemade dessert that may cause you to rethink your afternoon plans. Drinks are included.

Guests may dine in, carry out, or take advantage of delivery for bulk orders, making it easy to enjoy lunch whether you're meeting friends, feeding coworkers, or stocking up for a very happy afternoon at home.

Tickets are $10 and are available for in-person pickup during business hours at Plank Road Realty, located at 209 East Wade Street in Wadesboro. Just ask for Katy Edwards. Tickets may also be purchased through any member of the Anson Women's League, who will gladly make sure you're covered between now and the big day.

Proceeds from the luncheon help fund the League's many community efforts, so every bowl of soup does double duty - filling stomachs and supporting local projects.

Come hungry, leave happy, and enjoy knowing your lunch made a difference.

Women In Business Event To Focus On Heart Health

The Anson County Chamber of Commerce will host its first Women in Business event of 2026 with a special Heart Health Edition on Thursday, February 5. The evening promises a high-energy and informative program centered on women's heart health and overall wellness.

The event will take place from 5:15 to 6:45 p.m. at Atrium Health Anson, in the Community Room. Admission is free, and food will be provided.

Featured speaker for the evening will be Dr. Holly Stegall, a board-certified family medicine physician with Atrium Health. Dr. Stegall cares for women and families at every stage of life and is known for her passion for service, wellness, and empowering women to take control of their health.

Attendees can expect an engaging evening that includes opportunities to mingle and connect, practical and life-changing heart health tips, and a celebration of women in leadership and the local community. The event will also feature fun door prizes and a relaxed, welcoming atmosphere.

Organizers encourage attendees to grab a friend and make it a girls' night out while kicking off 2026 feeling inspired, informed, and connected.

Library Strikes a Chord with Country and Gospel Favorites

Stan Harward brings toe-tapping tunes to Hampton B. Allen Library

The Hampton B. Allen Library will trade quiet whispers for toe-tapping melodies on Monday, February 9, at 10:30 a.m. with a special musical program featuring guest artist Stan Harward.

Harward, known for delivering some of the best in country and gospel music, will perform a lively and uplifting program in the library's Little Theater.

Everyone is invited to come sit back, enjoy the music, and maybe even hum along - just don't worry, singing out loud is optional.

The Hampton B. Allen Library looks forward to welcoming music lovers of all ages for a morning of great songs, good company, and a little extra joy to start the week.

5th Annual Small Business Summit Set For March 4

Local entrepreneurs, business owners, and community leaders are invited to mark their calendars for the 5th Annual Small Business Summit, scheduled for Wednesday, March 4, 2026, at the Lockhart-Taylor Center in Wadesboro. The event will run from 9:00 a.m. until 2:45 p.m. and will focus on turning local spending gaps into local business growth.

The summit will feature a full day of workshops, networking opportunities, and practical business strategies designed to help small businesses strengthen their operations and expand their reach. Attendees will also have the opportunity to hear directly from local entrepreneurs during a panel discussion highlighting real-world experiences and success stories.

Organizers say the summit is designed to equip current and aspiring business owners with tools and connections that can help keep dollars circulating within the local economy while supporting sustainable growth. Additional details about speakers and session topics will be announced closer to the event date.

The Small Business Summit will be held at the Lockhart-Taylor Center, located at 514 North Washington Street in Wadesboro.

Presenting organizations for the event include the Anson County Chamber of Commerce, the Small Business Center at South Piedmont Community College, South Piedmont Community College, and the Women's Business Center of Charlotte.
