NC Dept. of Insurance to Examine Blue Cross Blue Shield

Insurance Commissioner Wayne Goodwin met with top executives of Blue Cross and Blue Shield of North Carolina last week to discuss the insurer's ongoing payment and enrollment problems. As a result of the issues, the N.C. Department of Insurance (NCDI) will be initiating an examination of the company to monitor compliance with statutes and regulations. A public report of findings will be issued after the conclusion of the examination. The department's published examination reports can be found at www.ncdoi.com/MR/MR_Reports_ALL.aspx.

Since January 4 NCDI has received more than 1,000 complaints from BCBSNC customers related to issues such as overbilling, inability to verify effective coverage, and lack of a way to pay premiums due to company system errors.

Consumers in need of assistance from the N.C. Department of Insurance should call 855-408-1212 or visit www.ncdoi.com.

On Monday, February 8, Anson County lost their favorite barber, and most importantly, a great friend, Mr. Wilbur Moore. For the past 30 years Wilbur has cut your hair or that of someone you know. I can honestly speak for everyone when I say there will be no other one like him.

I consider myself privileged and honored to have known Wilbur. He will be greatly missed, but never forgotten.
