This is a release from Anson County 4-H: Thirty seven proud relatives, friends and supporters were in attendance at the annual 4-H Achievement Night, held Tuesday, February 25th at the Cooperative Extension Center. The event was held to honor Anson County 4-H'ers, 4-H Volunteer Leaders for their accomplishments over the last year, and Volunteer Leaders who have given of their time to help with programs in 4-H. Youth and adults were recognized and awarded ribbons, certificates, and medals.

Deserving young 4-H'ers earned scholarships for club project work. These scholarships, provided through program fundraising efforts, will be used toward 4-H trips, camps and 4-H project area supplies.

This year's Cloverbud (5-8) project winners were Levi Greene, Maddie Carpenter, Brayden Howell, Shayland Robinson, Andrew Martin, Kendall Duncan, Janiaya Maxwell, Janiyah Maxwell and Aalysa Liles.

Some of her community service activities is volunteering with the crisis ministry, serving community outreach meals at church, shopping and collecting items for Samaritan's Purse shoebox and cleaning kennels at the Stanly County Humane Society. In her statement she wrote: "4-H means everything to me. Going new places, meeting new people, doing things I've never done and didn't know I could do. 4-H is my adventure; it's always introducing me to opportunities. 4-H means working hard to achieve, making new friends and it pulls me out of my comfort zone. 4-H is my life, and it's a life I love."

Those clubs receiving charter seals were Eager Beavers 4-H Club and Busy Bees 4-H Club.

Certificates of Appreciation were given to volunteers that gave their time during the past year to 4-H in the capacities of teaching a program, judging or helping structure programs. Those individuals were, Peg Pinkston, Bessie Wilson, Willie Wilson, Carolina Farm Credit Staff, Marion Young, Janine Rywak and Janet Gilreath.

This year's Outstanding Volunteer Award went to Carrissima Martin.
