Mr. Ronald Lee Dunn

Mr. Ronald Lee Dunn, 68, died Tuesday, March 17, 2015, at the Hospice House in Union County.

Memorial services were held on Sunday, March 22, 2015, at Leavitt Funeral Home.

Ronald was born December 26, 1946, in Watsonville, California, a son of Virginia Lucille Liles Dunn Caudle and the late Donald Lee Dunn. He was a retired dockworker at Overnite Transportation Company.

Survivors include his mother, Virginia Caudle of Polkton; two sons, Michael Dunn and David Dunn; daughter Robin Love; sisters, Peggy Hildreth, Joyce Kirback, Pat Caudle and Becky Chezeum; brothers, Kenneth Caudle and Ricky Caudle; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Ronald was preceded in death by a brother, Ronnie and a sister, Carolyn.

Leavitt Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. Online condolences may be made at leavittfuneralhomewadesboro.com.

Mr. Walter Lampley, Jr.

Mr. Walter Lampley, Jr., 92, went home to be with his Lord and Savior on Friday, March 27, 2015, at his home.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday, March 31, 2015, at Sweet Haven Church with Rev. Mitchell Roller officiating. Entombment followed in Richmond County Memorial Park Mausoleum.

Walter was born April 24, 1922, in Richmond County, a son of the late Walter and Annie Florence Biggs Lampley.

He owned and operated Airport Garage for a number of years prior to opening Lampley's Used Cars in Rockingham. When he retired he had been in car sales for more than 40 years, and at the time of his death was the oldest car dealer in Richmond County.

Walter was a man of integrity and great faith. He not only believed, he lived his faith and was a shining example to his family and friends. He was a member of the Sweet Haven Church, and prior to declining health had been an active member of the Gideon's International.

Surviving are his sons, Gary Lampley of Rockingham and Gene (Bernice) Lampley of Mt. Gilead; his grandchildren, Shelby (John) Johnson of Laurel Hill, Amy (Jason) Stonifer of Southern Pines, Gene (Dana) Lampley, Jr., Donald Lampley and Michelle Oliver, all of Rockingham and Brad (Lindsey) Frazier of Michigan; 20 great-grandchildren; nieces and nephews and their families all of whom he loved; and special friends, Max, Sylvia and Michelle Brigman and Danny and Barbara Deberry.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wives, Hazel Jordan Lampley and Dorothy Perdue Lampley and brothers and sisters, Grover Lampley, McKinnon Lampley, Mary Caulder, Ruth Watts, Margaret Dawkins, Mildred Bennett and Ida Ingram.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Richmond County Hospice, 1119 N US 1 Highway, Rockingham, NC 28379 or to Gideon's International.

The arrangements were in care of Leavitt Funeral Home. Online condolences may be made at leavittfuneralhomewadesboro.com.

Mr. Charles Edward Litaker

Mr. Charles Edward Litaker, 67, died Wednesday, March 25, 2015, at his home.

A memorial service to celebrate Charles' life was held on Sunday, March 29, 2015, at First United Methodist Church in Wadesboro, which just celebrated his 50 years of service.

Charles was born on July 7, 1947, in Mt. Pleasant, NC, a son of Frieda Smith Litaker and Franklin Brooks Litaker. He was a master musician who played organ for his first church service at the young age of 9. Charles gave his life to the Church and found joy and purpose in the United Methodist Church's "Open Minds, Open Hearts, Open Doors" ideal. The people of First UMC in Wadesboro became his home when he arrived to play organ as a freshman at Pfeiffer College, and were the main reason that he and his wife Gail chose to make Wadesboro their permanent home.

Charles was an accomplished organist, who won district and regional competitions with the American Guild of Organists. In 1970 he earned a top ranking at the national AGO finals in Buffalo, NY. Charles was the consummate musician, for whom
