Celebrating National Photography Month in May

Cheraw Arts Commission will present a Photography Exhibit at the Burr Gallery during the month of May. This exhibit celebrating National Photography Month features photos by local amateur and professional photographers. The public is invited to an Exhibit Opening on Tuesday, May 6 from 5:30-7:00pm at the gallery located in the Cheraw Community Center – 200 Powe Street.

In 1984, President Ronald Reagan proclaimed the first week in May as National Photography Week and called upon the American people to appreciate and understand the value of photography to the Nation. National Photography Month was first celebrated in 1987 when Congress declared May as the month to celebrate this unique artform.

The exhibit will be displayed throughout May and can be viewed Monday- Friday – 8:30am-5:00pm. Contact the Cheraw Arts Commission 843.537.8420 x 12 for additional information.
