Dr. Richard Kenneth "Dick" Constantian

Dr. Richard Kenneth "Dick" Constantian, of Charlotte and formerly of Wadesboro, died Wednesday, April 26, 2017, at University Hospital in Charlotte at age 94.

Funeral services were held on Saturday, April 29, 2017, at First United Methodist Church, Wadesboro. Interment followed in Anson Memorial Park. In addition, there was a memorial service at Aldersgate Retirement Community on Tuesday, May 2, 2017.

Dick was born October 2, 1922, in New Jersey to James and Anna Constantian. There he grew up with firm guidance from his parents, immigrants from Armenia, who taught him the value of a strong work ethic and perseverance through hardship. These teachings shaped who he became. He proudly served in the Army during World War II. He graduated from Southern College of Optometry in Tennessee and settled in Anson County to set up practice. Soon after he would meet the love of his life, Elizabeth "Lib" Barker in Charlotte, and he knew she was the one he would love until the moment he died.

Dick lived in Wadesboro for over 50 years and served the community in many ways, not only providing eye care but also teaching classes at the high school and Sunday School classes at First United Methodist Church, serving as an active member and officer of the Rotary Club, and serving the community on the board of the county Health Department.

For the past seven years Dick has lived at Aldersgate Retirement Community in Charlotte where he was a well-liked member of the community, active in the "Liar's Club" and hosting dinners with speakers from the Secret Service, the FBI, NASA, news media, and other areas of public interest. These events, which he also arranged for the Rotary Club in Wadesboro, were a source of great pride and joy, especially when one of the speakers was his son Chip, a Commander in the U. S. Navy.

Dick was preceded in death by his beloved wife Lib, and also by his mother and father and his brothers, Raymond and Harold. He is survived by his son Richard "Chip" (Teri); his daughter Sara (Alan); his grandchildren, Gracie, Hank and Zach; his nephews, Alan and Mark; and his niece Carol.

Leavitt Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. Online condolences may be made at www.leavittfh.com.
