Mrs. Della Lee McLendon Lindsey

Mrs. Della Lee McLendon Lindsey, 80, of Albemarle and formerly of Ansonville died Friday, May 2, 2014, at Bethany Woods in Albemarle.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. on Wednesday, May 7, 2014, at Pleasant Hill Missionary Baptist Church. Burial will follow in the church cemetery.

Della was born January 23, 1934, in Anson County, a daughter of the late Willie Bell McLendon and Josh Davenport. She confessed Christ at an early age and was a long time member of Pleasant Hill Baptist Church where she played the piano when called upon.

She worked in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Young, caring for their children, and later moved to New York and worked in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spitzer as a housekeeper for a number of years. She returned to Ansonville in 1971 and then went to work at Collins and Aikman in Norwood, working there for 28 years prior to her retirement.

Della was married to the late John Lindsey. She was

Mr. Langford Alexander "Butch" Treadaway

Mr. Langford Alexander "Butch" Treadaway, 71, died Wednesday, April 30, 2014, at Hospice of Union County in Monroe.

Funeral services were held on Saturday, May 3, 2014, at First Baptist Church, Wadesboro with Dr. Robert Hunter, Jr. officiating. Interment followed in Cedar Grove Cemetery in Polkton.

Butch was born February 3, 1943, in Anson County, a son of the late Willis Alexander and Stella Munlin Treadaway. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brothers, Ronald and Donald Treadaway, his stepmother Mary Treadaway and stepbrother Mac Osborn.

He had worked for many years with West Knitting Mills and later retired from the North Carolina Department of Transportation. He was active for many years with the Anson County Rescue Squad, and was a devoted member of First Baptist Church, Wadesboro where he sang in the Chancel Choir, played in the Handbell Choir, was a deacon and worked with the youth. He was also the recipient of Layman of the Year on two different occasions with the Anson Baptist Association.

Butch certainly had a servant's heart and that was evident in his participation with both a prison and nursing home ministry with the late Boots Hough. However he is most noted for his wonderfully written notes of encouragement sent to many people in and around Anson County. He will be remembered as a wonderful husband, father and grandfather.

Surviving are his wife of 50 years, Louise Thomas Treadaway of the home; his son Tim (Wendy) Treadaway of Wadesboro; his grandchildren, Taylor Treadaway of Morrisville and Laci Treadaway of Wadesboro; his brothers and sisters-in-law, Jack and Mary Treadaway, Rev. W. T. "Bo" and Jane Treadaway and Louise Treadaway, all of Wadesboro.

Memorials may be made to First Baptist Church, Music Ministry, P.O. Box 423, Wadesboro, NC 28170.

The arrangements were in care of Leavitt Funeral Home. Online condolences may be made at leavittfuneralhomewadesboro.com.
