Burnsville Recreation & Learning Center Golden Sweetheart Event

Burnsville Recreation & Learning Center recently held their third annual Golden Sweetheart event. This event was given to honor all Golden Sweethearts who attended this annual event. The BRLC Golden Sweethearts for 2015 are Mrs. Charlie Horne (95 years old), Mrs. Glodie Nivens (92 years old), Mrs. Catherine Pickett (92 years old) and Mrs. Lula Little (88 years old). These women were selected as they were the oldest to attend this gala affair.

Each Golden Sweetheart was escorted to their Golden Sweetheart seat on the arm of a youth. Each youth crowned the Golden Sweethearts with crowns of replicas of different stones. The stones had been cut and placed around each golden crown. Once they each had been crowned, words were given by volunteer Gwen Lisenby. After that the carnation dance was presented. This consisted of all guests dancing to an oldie tune from the 1940's to honor the Golden Sweetheart. DJ Steven Flake played music from the 40's through 60's during the event. Master Casey Eller presented a musical rendition for all to enjoy. Casey is the grandson of Rev. and Mrs. Bobby Eller of Marshville.

The afternoon was full of food, fun, prizes, games, line consisted of black and gold dec-dancing and much more. All who attended were given stuffed toys to carry home. The décor oration with a hint of red. The decorations and arrangement were presented by Mary Clark.

All BRLC volunteers were given golden hats to wear for this special occasion. All Golden Sweetheart guests were given golden crowns to wear during the event and to carry home with them.

The food menu consisted of a variety of meat, fruits and vegetables trays, sandwiches, chips, potato salad and tea.

All Golden Sweetheart sponsor who donated to this cause will remain on the bulletin board throughout the year. This organization continues to expand and help many as you donate to the BRLC.

This event was hosted and coordinated by BRLC Golden Sweetheart Committee members, Gwen Lisenby, Susan Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Eller, David Cash, Henry Collins, Ann Hancock, Louis Burns, Mary Gaddy and Marcella Broadway. Miss. Priscilla Little acted as registrar, ensuring that all guests were registered crowned as they entered the event.
