in Charlotte. She and her sister, Ann, were known for their wonderful voices and were often called upon to sing for weddings and funerals.

Mollie was an excellent cook and was especially known for her delicious pound cakes. She loved when friends and family came to visit her at her home in Burnsville and just as her mother before her, she always made sure her guests were sent home with something from her kitchen or with fruits and vegetables she and her family had canned throughout the summers. She was always giving of herself and her gifts. Also, an accomplished artist, she loved painting beautiful flowers and sharing her paintings with others. She will be remembered as one of the most honest, loving, and generous people on earth.

She leaves to cherish her memory her children, June Bowers of Pittsboro, Iris Bowers of New London, Mollie Williamson (Ken) of Wagram, Buddy Bowers (Emily) of Wadesboro and Rick Bowers (Brenda) of Ft. Mill, SC; her 12 grandchildren; 15 great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband Baxter Bowers, and her brothers and sisters, J. Mack Coley, Elizabeth Ackerman, Douglas Coley and Ann Porter.

The family suggests memorials be made to Calvary Episcopal Church, 308 E. Wade St., Wadesboro, NC 28170.

The arrangements are in care of Leavitt Funeral Home and online condolences may be made at www.leavittfh.com.
