

Sandra Kay Henry, 67, went home to her Lord after experiencing complications from surgery.

A memorial service to celebrate her life was held on Tuesday, May 24, 2022, at Leavitt Funeral Home. The family greeted friends for two hours before the service.

Born in Anson County on December 17, 1954, Sandra was a daughter of the late Robert Lee Henry Sr. and Aileen Jolly Henry. She attended local public schools and Anson Community College before settling on a career with Columbus-McKinnon (previously Coffing Hoists and Duff-Norton). She retired in 2019 so she could look after her granddaughter, and what a wonderful relationship they forged together.

Survivors include her only child Amber "Nikki" McLendon (Gary) of Mt. Gilead; her only granddaughter Zoey McLendon; and the expectation of a fine grandson, Truett Ray McLendon in July of this year. Also surviving are seven siblings, Ronnie Henry, Tim Henry (Terri) and Nancy Cox, all of Polkton, Becky Fitzpatrick (Don) of Aiken, SC, Brenda Wells of Gastonia, Jay Jolly (Peggy) of Taylorsville and Ed Henry (Brenda) of Kannapolis.

In addition to her parents, Sandra was preceded in death by seven siblings, Harvey Henry, Wendy Henry, Robert Henry, Jr., John "Rusty" Henry, Joe Henry and Archie Lee Henry.

The arrangements were in care of Leavitt Funeral Home and online condolences may be made at www.leavittfh.com.

Extension And Community Association
Members Attend District Day Conference

Five ladies from Anson attended the District ECA Conference on May 12th in Union County. The mission of the North Carolina Extension and Community Association is to strengthen families through: Leadership Development. Volunteer Work. Educational Support. There was a total of 110 in attendance for the conference. Registrants were also able to participate in the cultural arts competition. This competition is for those to enter handmade items, homemade decorations, quilts, greeting cards, or original written pieces.

The group participated in various activities and programs during the day. Elected officials welcomed and greeted the group along with the President of the state ECA, Cathy Holmes. The Lifelong Improvement Through Fitness Together (LIFT) program was presented by Hayley Cowell, Family Consumer Science Agent, Stanly County and Roshunda Terry, Anson County. The team went over the basics of LIFT, the research behind the program and its benefits. Participants were able to do some of the key exercises with the team. Sarah Dean, Faith Community Health Ministry Coordinator Nurse, Atrium-Anson; gave a presentation on Mental Health. The types of mental health, symptoms and ways to help those dealing with mental health issues. The group enjoyed the exercise session and presentation. After lunch, the business meeting was held and the incoming district officers were installed along with the new Agent Liaison. The Cultural Arts Winners were also announced.

Those that attended from Anson were Hannah Dunlap, Francis Tillman, Marian Young, Betty Garris and Pearl Blount. A great time was had by all. This was the first in person event held with ECA in almost three years. This was also the first official gathering of ECA in Anson. If you are interested in joining this association or just want to learn more about ECA and what we do, please feel free to give Roshunda Terry a call at 704.694.2915. We would love to have you be a part of our group and in Anson. By Roshunda Terry, County Extension Director
