Obituaries

Mr. J. Mack Coley, Jr.

On May 22, 2015, at the age of 92, Mr. J. Mack Coley, Jr. peacefully entered heaven to be at rest with his Heavenly Father and all his many loved ones who went before him.

Funeral services were held on Monday, May 25, 2015, at the Wadesboro Church of God with Rev. Jeff Goudelock officiating. Interment followed in Anson Memorial Park.

Mr. Coley was born in Wadesboro on October 10, 1922, a son of the late Della Trexler and Jesse Mack Coley. He served in the US Army during World War II. Later he worked for and retired from Little Cotton Manufacturing with 35 years of service. Mack was a longtime member of the Wadesboro Church of God and also a member of Kilwinning Masonic Lodge #64 for over 50 years. He married his beloved wife Eloise Horne in 1942 and together they celebrated 72 years of marriage this past November.

Survivors include his wife, Eloise Coley of the home; a son, Mike Coley; two daughters, Maxine Wally and Vivian Horne; a daughter-in-law, Mary Coley; a grandson, Lee Wally; six great-grandchildren; three great-great-grandchildren; and his sister Mollie Bowers.

Mack was preceded in death by son Johnny Coley; granddaughter Kimberly Hampton; and two sons-in-law, Gary Horne and Philip Wally.

Mack's love for his family, friends and his church will be greatly missed.

The family suggests memorials be made to the Wadesboro Church of God, 809 N. Greene St., Wadesboro, NC 28170.

Mr. John Wesley, "Nookie" Griggs

Mr. John Wesley "Nookie" Griggs went peacefully into the arms of Jesus on May 21, 2015, surrounded by family and friends.

Funeral services were held on Sunday, May 24, 2015, at Sandy Plains United Methodist Church in Morven. Interment followed in the Morven Cemetery.

Nookie was born September 11, 1933, in Cason's Old Field, the son of the late Thurston and Bernice Vaughn Griggs.

He was a loving and devoted husband to Donnie Faye Boswell Griggs for 59 years and 11 months. He had one daughter, Karen Helms, a son-in-law that he loved like a son, Chuck Helms and a grandson, Wesley Helms who was the apple of his eye. He was also survived by his brother, Carl Thomas Griggs (Frances) of Wadesboro and numerous nieces and nephews.

One of his hopes was to be healthy enough to witness Wesley's marriage to Kerry Ricketts on May 1 of 2014, which he was able to do. Nookie was a graduate of Deep Creek High School and a member of Shiloh United Methodist Church in Morven. He faithfully served his firefighter. Nookie served the Morven Volunteer Fire Department for 40 years, serving fifteen of those years as Fire Chief. He worked at Morven Hardware, Steagall Oil Company, and retired from Jackson Oil Company in 2001.

Upon retirement Nookie joined his son-in-law Wesley at Helms Farms doing various maintenance and repair and grass cutting. The last two years of his life he served as overseer of the day to day farming operations from the driver's seat of his truck, a lounge chair at the shop, and even from his recliner as he kept up with all that was going on.

Nookie loved his family and friends. He loved fishing, going to the beach and helping on the farm. He was a kind man with heart of gold who will be greatly missed by all. In addition to his parents, Nookie was preceded in death by three brothers, Harold Griggs, Boyce Griggs and Charles Griggs.

The family suggests memorial contributions be made to Shiloh United Methodist Church, c/o Sydney Pratt, 6249 Pitt Rd. Morven, NC 28119 or to a hospice of one's choice.
