Classmates Invited for Day of Fun,
Night of Dancing for Bowman
High School Classes of 1968-1984

On Saturday, June 28 there will be a gathering for Bowman High School Alumni Classes 1968 - 1984. The event will be held at Anson Middle School, which was the former Bowman High School, on Highway 52 North in Wadesboro.

Friends and family will gather from 10:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. Beginning at 5:00 p.m. the reunion will be for adults, with dancing in the gym.

Bring your chairs, tents and those fans for the outdoor event! There will be food and merchandise vendors, a DJ, dancing, fun for the kids, vintage cars, slingshots and motorcycles.

This is an entry-free event, and all classes are encouraged to attend.

For information contact Lorraine at 813-573-4977.

Black Women Alliance Presents "From Awareness to Action" Event

This is a release from the Black Women Alliance: Black Women Alliance is committed to Engaging, Educating, and Empowering our community. By engaging with our community and educating them on their rights and civic responsibilities, we empower individuals to make informed decisions that will impact their future.

Our organization was officially established on December 17, 2023, by 14 distinguished leaders in Union County. Our Founders were collectively motivated to create a movement of women dedicated to mobilizing marginalized and underrepresented communities. Black Women Alliance serves as a powerful platform focused on voter registration, education, and advocacy.

Our mission is to support and uplift marginalized and underrepresented communities. We provide voter registration services to ensure every voice is heard. Through education, we aim to inform and inspire. Our advocacy efforts are devoted to promoting the rights and well-being of black women. We invite you to join us in making a difference and amplifying the voices of our community.

We invite you to join us on Sunday, June 29 at 4pm to take part in an afternoon of Education and Preparation for those interested in running for office. Light refreshments will be served.

Theme: From Awareness to Action

Date & Time: Sunday, June 29 4:00 to 6:00 p.m.
