SPCC to Hold Flag Retirement Ceremony

South Piedmont's monthly Veterans Coffee House scheduled for Wednesday, June 20 will include a flag retirement ceremony at 9:00 a.m. conducted by the Indian Trail VFW Honor Guard. Afterwards Monroe Mayor Bobby Kilgore will unveil the Purple Heart City sign.

Mike Stubbs, Commander of the Military Order of the Purple Heart - Chapter 634, will receive the sign on behalf of combat wounded veterans. At a latter date the City of Monroe will erect the sign in a prominent location. The public is invited to both the flag retirement ceremony and this presentation.

The Veterans Coffee House is held on the third Wednesday of each month at 8:30 a.m. at South Piedmont Community College in Monroe. The event is an opportunity for veterans of all ages, periods of conflict, and branches of service to join together for coffee, light refreshments and fellowship. These gatherings provide an opportunity for our local veterans to share information and experiences and to learn more about services offered for veterans.

Polkton Community Vacation Bible School

For the very first time, the churches in the town of Polkton have come together to offer the 2018 Polkton Community Vacation Bible School. This event is sponsored by the Polkton United Methodist Church, Saron Missionary Baptist Church, New Life Trinity, Evangelistic Outreach Center and the Polkton Baptist Church.

The VBS will take place at the Polkton UMC, Monday through Wednesday, June 18-20, from 5 to 8 p.m. Polkton UMC is located at 18 O'Neal Street in Polkton. Kids from kindergarten through twelfth grade are welcome.

Pastor Hugo Villagrana from Polkton UMC said, "The organizers are very excited to offer this event to the entire community of Polkton, extended to all the kids in Anson county. The event is free for all. Among the activities are crafts, music, Bible lessons, games and food."

For information you can contact the above churches, or call Pastor Norma Villagrana at (816) 351-4232 or Barbara Lee at (704) 907-2945.
