

BRLC Being Restored Under the Stars Family Affair

Burnsville Recreation & Learning Center will kick off the summer with once a month evening events. The monthly outside activities are called 'Being Restored under the Stars,' and they will consist of great music, good food, different beverages and multiple games of Bingo and shopping for the entire family. The events will take place on Saturday, June 16, Saturday, July 21 and Saturday, August 18.

This time of joy and restoration is geared to the entire family. The kick off times will be at 7 p.m. and will the events will conclude at 10 p.m.

Please bring your lawn or folding chairs and blankets. The music will consist of praise, traditional gospel, country and more. BRLC always accepts donations. Each donation is tax exempt.

If you are an individual performer, a local band or singing group and you would like to participate in one of the events, call 704-826-8737. The BRLC office is open Monday through Thursday, 9:00 a.m to 3:00 p.m. BRLC continues to thank all of you for the support you have given in order that they can help others.

BRLC is located at 13349 Highway 742 North in Burnsville, across from the Fire Department. The telephone number is 704-826-8737.

Shakeeta Watts at Brown Bag Book Club Meeting

Hampton B. Allen Library announces the Brown Bag Book Club meeting for Monday, June 18 in the Pritchett Room at 12 noon with guest author Shakeeta Watts. Shakeeta grew up in Wadesboro and graduated from Wingate University before relocating to the Charlotte area. She is a freelance artist, pine needle basket maker, children's book author and graphic designer. Everyone is invited to bring a covered dish, meet the featured author and enjoy the program.

Any questions please call 704-694-5177.

American Red Cross Wilderness and Remote First Aid

Anson County Parks and Recreation will offer a course called American Red Cross Wilderness and Remote First Aid. This class provides the foundation of first aid skills to be able to respond to emergencies and give care in the areas that do not have immediate EMS response. This include wilderness and remote environments, including urban disasters such as earthquakes and hurricanes.

You must be at least 14 years old by the end of the class and possess current adult CPR/AED certification. Class length is approximately 16 hours. The cost is $25 per person. Class dates and times will be announced in July once registration has concluded.

To register come to Anson County Parks and Recreation office at Little Park, located at 845 Airport Road in Wadesboro. The deadline to register is Friday, June 29. For more information contact Jeff Waisner at 704-695-2550, Wendell Small at 704-695-2782 or Morris Gatewood at 704-694-5751.
