The Anson County NAACP Meets June 23

The next meeting of the Anson County Branch of the NAACP (National Association for the Advancement of Colored People) will be held on Monday, June 23 at 6:30 p.m. at Ebenezer Baptist Church, located at 612 Salisbury Street in Wadesboro. Cynthia Wallace will speak about what's affecting this community. She is with the organization New Rural Project which serves the interest of local communities. They welcome you to come and see what is going on. "Each one reach one."

Meetings are held the fourth Monday of each month.

For more information contact Anson NAACP President Sinic Marsh at mrshs6@yahoo.com or 704-254-0630.

About Cynthia Wallace Cynthia Wallace, a native of Springfield, GA, has lived in Charlotte, NC since 2006. In 2021, she co-founded the nonprofit New Rural Project which focuses on making sure that the voices of rural young people and marginalized residents are heard. She is also the Executive Director.

Cynthia earned her bachelor's degree in Mathematics from Spelman College and her Master of Science in Statistics from the University of North Florida. Her 25-year career in the financial services industry enhanced her expertise in risk management and regulations where she worked for three fortune 500 financial services companies, beginning at AT&T Universal Card Services. She then worked for Wachovia Bankcard Services before spending over 20 years with Synchrony (formerly GE Capital), retiring from there in Jan 2021 as Vice President, Credit Acquisitions Insights Leader. During her time at Synchrony, she spent one year in Paris, France on an International Risk assignment and became a certified Six Sigma Black Belt.

Cynthia was the 2020 Democratic Nominee for North Carolina's 9th Congressional District. She's been active politically in NC since 2008. Prior to running for office in December 2019, she was the Chair of the 9th Congressional District of the North Carolina Democratic Party beginning in January 2017 where she led an 8-county strategy.

In 2021, Cynthia was appointed to the NC State Banking Commission by Governor Cooper and was also elected to the boards of Democracy NC and the Levine Museum of the New South. She also serves on the board of her homeowner's association. She was a member of the Charlotte Future 2040 Comprehensive Plan Strategic Advisors. She has been a member of the Park Church South Charlotte for over 15 years.

Cynthia credits her late mother and father with her passion for civic engagement. Her father was a civil rights activist and was the first African American elected to Effingham (GA) County Commission. She has two sisters and one brother and frequently visits her family in and near the small southern Georgia town where she grew up

School Board Meets June 23

The Board of Education will hold their regular monthly meeting on Monday, June 23 in the Administrative Board Room, located at 320 Camden Road in Wadesboro. Closed Session will begin immediately after the opening of the meeting at 5:00 p.m. to discuss matters related to personnel and property pursuant to NCGS 143.318.11(a)(6) and NCGS 143.318.11(a)(5). Open Session for the public will begin at 6:00 p.m.

If the public wishes to sign up for public comment, they can sign up in-person. A sign-up sheet will be available 30 minutes before the meeting begins for any individual or group to indicate their desire to address the board. Public comment will be held during the Open Session portion of the meeting at 6:00 p.m.

The meeting will be live streamed on the Anson Schools' YouTube channel for the public to view. To find the channel you can search YouTube for "Anson County Schools."

Anson County Beekeepers Meet June 26

The Anson County Beekeepers will hold their regular bee meeting on Thursday, June 26 at 7:00 p.m. at the Anson County Extension Office, located at 501 McLaurin Street in Wadesboro. No meal will be served.

The guest speaker is Mr. Thomas Townsend of Stanly County; he will talk about the products of the hive.

There will also be 50-50 drawings to help and earn funds for the association. If you are able to bring some items for the drawings they will be greatly appreciated.

Not a member but would like to learn more about the local chapter and beekeeping educational programs? Do you need a beekeeper to re-home a visiting swarm? Visit the "Anson County Beekeepers Association" Facebook page for more information.

Your Future Starts Now: Discover 49erNext

Exciting news! It's now possible for South Piedmont Community College graduates to get guaranteed admission to UNC Charlotte. Beginning in fall 2025, South Piedmont students can sign up to participate in 49erNext, a program designed to prepare you for transfer to UNC Charlotte.

To be eligible to participate in 49erNext, all you have to do is:

- Be pursuing an Associate in Arts, Associate in Science, Associate in Engineering, Associate in Fine Arts, Associate in Arts-Teacher Prep, or Associate in Science-Teacher Prep degree.
- Have earned 15 or fewer credit hours from South Piedmont at the time that you sign up for 49erNext.
- Must intend to pursue a major offered at UNC Charlotte, with the exception of architecture, fine or performing arts, graphic design, and nursing.

Why 49erNext? Why should you sign up for 49erNext? Because you'll receive collaborative advising from both South Piedmont and UNC Charlotte, as well as early advising and registration at UNC Charlotte, plus support from UNC Charlotte during the admissions and financial aid processes.

But the biggest reason? 49erNext is proven to prepare students for success at UNC Charlotte. Sixty-five percent of 49erNext students graduate within two years of transferring -- that's 26.5 percent higher than other transfer students.

49erNext students also graduate at higher rates than other transfer students.

Ready to Get Started?

UNC Charlotte is one of South Piedmont's top transfer destinations, and we're proud to offer 49erNext to our students. Learn more about 49erNext at: spcc.edu/49erNext.
