Kathryn McRae Chosen for
Teens Westward Bound Travel Program

This is a release from Anson County Early College: Anson County Early College is proud to announce that one of our students, Kathryn McRae, has been chosen as a participant in Teens Westward Bound. TWB takes teenagers through twenty two states over a twenty three day period, giving them the opportunity of a lifetime. Kathryn is ACEC's second student to participate. Kaytlin Teal had the chance to attend last summer and shared her experience with Kathryn.

The application process consists of a written section along with three adult recommendations and one peer recommendation. Kathryn will be leaving this June to visit such places as the Grand Canyon, Yellowstone, Las Vegas, among many other places out west. She expects the most difficult part will be being away from family for so long, but she does look forward to all that she will have to share with them.

Kathryn's mother is Kristin Park, math teacher at ACEC. When Mrs. Park was asked recently how she felt about Kathryn's upcoming trip, she responded, "I am so excited for Kathryn to have this opportunity to experience the great sites of our nation and meet new young people from all over the state of North Carolina. I am nervous about her being away from home for 24 days, but I feel that it will be preparation for both of us because she will be leaving in the fall of 2019 for college."
