NATURAL GAS PIPELINE SAFETY

An important message from Piedmont Natural Gas

Our pipelines and facilities are designed, installed, operated, maintained and monitored according to the government's safety requirements.

Health hazards: Extremely high concentrations may cause irritation or asphyxiation
Fire hazards: Extremely flammable and easily ignited by heat, sparks or flames

HOW TO IDENTIFY A NATURAL GAS LEAK

SMELL
Natural gas smells like rotten eggs

LOOK
Natural gas leaks often cause bubbling water, blowing dirt or dead plants. You may also see sinkholes and/or exposed pipe

LISTEN
Natural gas leaks often cause a hissing sound near a natural gas line or meter

IF YOU SUSPECT A NATURAL GAS LEAK

- Leave the area immediately
- DO NOT use anything electrical that may create a spark - this includes a cellphone
- Call 911
- DO NOT attempt to locate the source of a leak
- DO NOT attempt to stop a leak
- Call 811 before you dig anywhere on your property - no matter how small

Fish for Free in North Carolina on July 4

On Monday, July 4, anglers of any age or residency status will be allowed to fish without a license in North Carolina, from 12 a.m. (midnight) until 11:59 p.m. Free Fishing Day, sponsored by the N.C. Wildlife Resources Commission, is an annual event that was authorized by the N.C. General Assembly in 1994 and always falls on July 4.

"Free Fishing Day was created to promote the sport of fishing," said Christian Waters, the agency's chief of the Inland Fisheries Division. It's an opportunity for families to try an outdoor recreational activity that is relatively inexpensive and available to anyone, no matter their age or skill level. It's an excellent way to enjoy quality time together, relaxing by the water."

Anglers are required to follow fishing regulations, such as length and daily possession limits, and bait and tackle restrictions. (Available at ncwildlife.org/Licensing.) The Wildlife Commission's website, ncwildlife.org, is a valuable resource for regulations, tips about where and what to fish, and the state's Tackle Loaner Program.

"The interactive fishing and boating maps on the agency's website list more than 500 fishing and boating areas that are open to the public, and many of which that are free. Also, the Wildlife Commission stocks a variety of fish in waters across the state to give anglers a better chance of catching fish. Stocking information can also be found on the agency's website."

Anglers should remember that boating areas likely will be crowded over the busy holiday weekend. Wildlife officials urge boaters to be patient, courteous and follow the boating etiquette tips below:

- Be patient and remain calm until an open parking space is available.
- Wait your turn in the launch line. Don't block or cut off others.
- Park your vehicle and trailer while someone moves the boat away from the ramp.
- Recruit someone to move the boat away from the ramp while you retrieve your vehicle and trailer.
- Observe no-wake zones and be cautious.

While anyone can fish for free on July 4, a fishing license is required for people age 16 and older on all other days of the year. This includes both inland and coastal waters in North Carolina. Purchasing a license online is quick and easy. Other ways to purchase a license are:

- Call the Wildlife Commission at 888-248-6834, Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
- Visit a local Wildlife Service Agent.

For more information on fishing in public, inland waters, visit the agency's fishing webpage: ncwildlife.org/Fishing/Fishing-in-North-Carolina.
