Meadowview Terrace Hosts Car Show
On Saturday, June 22 residents, staff, family and friends at Meadowview Terrace Assisted Living Center enjoyed their first car show. Eight vehicles participated in the event, and Meadowview residents and staff voted for the winners.

Franklin Ponds of Ansonville took top honors with his Chevy.

First Place winner was Franklin Ponds of Ansonville with his red Chevrolet Impala Supersport. Roger Robinson of Wadesboro placed second with his white Chevrolet Corvette.

Teresa Pope of Meadowview said, "Thanks to money donations and candy bar sales, enough money was raised to pay for glasses for two residents. Meadowview would like to thank everyone who participated and helped with the car show."

For the next car show Meadowview hopes the word will spread and more people will enter the show.

Summer Reading and Math Program

Studies have shown that students lose a fraction of what they have learned throughout the school year during each summer. Don't let your child be a statistic of this study. New Grove Missionary Baptist Church is offering a Summer Reading and Math Program to help students keep their focus and skills. This program, for grades K through 5, runs from Monday, July 1 to Thursday, August 1, with classes from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Lunch will be provided.

Space is limited so please call to enroll your child today. Donations are appreciated. Call Michelle Prince at 704-272-8884 (church) or 704-291-1320 (cell).
