Celebrate Mothers, Artists and the Olde Mill Gallery at the 2nd Sunday Artists' Reception

This month's 2nd Sunday Artists' Reception, hosted by the Anson County Arts Council, will be held on Sunday afternoon, July 10, from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. at the Olde Mill Gallery in the Lockhart Taylor Center. The first and second of the four featured artists this month will be Hannah Cole Buie and her mother Kate Buie. Hannah's love of art and her inspiration were developed while watching her mother Kate Buie paint. They painted side by side in the big house in Rockingham where mother Kate lived her whole life. Kate passed away this spring and Hannah is presenting this show in her memory. Kate Buie attended Ringling School of Art in Sarasota, Florida and studied at the Arts Students League in New York City. Kate's work includes many touching portraits and lovely landscapes while Hannah's oil paintings feature flowers and landscapes. The works shown at the reception will include paintings by both mother Kate and daughter Hannah.

The third featured artist is Mary Stogner of Richmond County, showing her decorated glassware. Mary decorates all kinds of glass containers, from small bowls to larger bowls, wine glasses and decanters. Decorations for all occasions - flowers, Christmas, other holidays - or just pretty artwork grace the assorted pieces of glass. Mary's glassware will be available for sale. Stock your kitchen and dining room with Mary's decorated glassware or get a head start on your Christmas shopping.

And speaking of kitchen, the fourth featured artist is Peggy Harrington Williams who will be sharing the art of southern cooking. Peggy is presenting her cookbook, The Legacy of a Mother, with a collection of her own recipes and those of her mother, Sarah Moore Harrington, plus those of family and friends. You will be able to sample some of the delicious items made from the recipes at the reception.

Some of the items described above will be just for display, but many will be available for sale and even perhaps custom orders taken. This 2nd Sunday Artists Reception will feature the work of these four accomplished artists, but it will also be an opportunity to view pieces by other artists in Anson County and the surrounding region in the expansive Olde Mill Gallery. This month the Arts Council begins its administration of the Olde Mill Gallery. Expect to see many upcoming exhibits as they encourage and entice you to visit this wonderful community asset - the Olde Mill Gallery.

This is a free event, with wine, cheese and other refreshments served. It is drop-in style - come for a few minutes or 2 hours. Bring a friend. Please call for directions and information 704 694-4950.

Respiratory Etiquette - Stop Germs at the Source

- Here are a few tips for those suffering from a cold, to not impose on others around them.
- 1) Cover your mouth and nose with a tissue or your upper sleeve when you cough or sneeze.
 - 2) Do not cover your mouth or nose with your hands when you sneeze.
 - 3) Always place your used tissue in the waste basket.
 - 4) You may be asked to put on a surgical mask to protect others.
 - 5) Coughing persons should sit at least three feet away from others.
 - 6) Regularly wash your hands with soap and water or clean with alcohol-based hand cleaner.

Anson Middle School Sport's Banquet Award Winners

From Corey Ross, Athletic Director at Anson Middle School: Anson Middle School held its sport's banquet in June 8 at Anson Middle School.
