Mr. David Lawrence Trotti

Mr. David Lawrence Trotti passed away on July 7, 2015, at CMC-Union in Monroe.

A memorial service to celebrate David's life was held on Saturday, July 11, 2015, at Leavitt Funeral Home.

Born in Newton, Texas to Lynette Moorman Trotti and Bernis Charles Trotti on November 25, 1937, David lived his early life around Dayton, Texas where he enjoyed a special relationship with his grandmother Ide Jackson Sanders and a close association with an aunt, Dora Varnado, and cousins of Alvin, Texas. In Alvin he courted and married his beloved surviving wife of 54 years, Jonny Lou Boling Trotti, on January 18, 1961. The newlyweds continued their education at Sam Houston State Teachers College in Huntsville, TX, where David, active in ROTC, earned a B.S. in Sociology. He entered the US Army as a 2nd Lieutenant in May of 1961.

As a distinguished career officer, David retired as a Major in October of 1981. Early on he was stationed in Tacoma, WA. He then served one tour in Korea, two tours in Vietnam - the first with the First Cav Division and the second as a Military Advisor to the Vietnamese. He worked with the ROTC programs at Southwest Missouri State University, in Darmstadt, Germany and at Ft. Bragg, NC. The retired Major Trotti established the JROTC program at Bowman High School in Wadesboro. He continued his professional pursuits as a teacher at Bowman High, inspiring young men and women with his knowledge of national and international history and his genuine interest in his students.

Though David's military career was dominant in his life, his unflinching love and care for his family was first in his heart. The Trotti's partnered in establishing a home in Morven, raising his three surviving children, daughter Davi Lou Trotti of Morven, now serving with the Mercy Ships providing medical services to East African countries, and two sons, John Charles Trotti of Morven, whose career has included 20 years with the US Navy as a cryptologist and currently as a chef, and Paul Lawrence Trotti, a professional nurse in Moorehead, MN. He is also survived by three grandchildren of Moorehead, MN, Gavin

Lawrence Trotti and Mickayla Joy Trotti, both currently enlisted in the US Navy; and Dayna Adair Trotti. He has one surviving sister, Betty Lou Trotti of Dayton, Texas.

David's unique sense of humor, pride in his Italian ancestry, and his life experiences provided intriguing stories, gifts and talents he shared generously with his community. He will be remembered with joy and gratitude by all.

Please, no flowers. To honor David, feed the hungry, provide for the needy - donate to a charity of your choice or to Circles of Hope, c/o First United Methodist Church, 118 E. Morgan Street, Wadesboro, NC 28170.

Leavitt Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. Online condolences at leavittfuneralhomewadesboro.com.
