The flowers that you sent that day, the card you mailed along the way, the service you stopped by to render, the gift you brought with thoughts so tender, the prayers you said which played a part in easing the pain that was in our hearts; each helped us to find that strength to bear the loss of the one we held so dear.

It was to us a great comfort indeed to see you in the time of sorrow and need.

So from our hearts which you tried to help mend, we thank you again and again for being such wonderful friends.
