

Jasmine Polk of Anson County Early College Attends Governor's School

The North Carolina Governor's School is a 4-week summer residential program for high school students. This year rising senior Jasmine Polk had the opportunity to attend the program and represent Anson County Early College.

Jasmine attended Governor's School East which is located in Raleigh, NC at Meredith College. Jasmine stated, "Governor's School for me was one of those moments in life where you realize that this experience will change who you are as a person. Throughout the four weeks at Governor's School, it was ingrained in our brains that Governor's School is not a place, it is a family. Honestly, that is exactly how it felt."

Jasmine had the opportunity to take classes and study in three areas: 1) Science, 2) Philosophy, and 3) Self and Society.

We are very proud of Jasmine and glad that she represented ACEC at Governor's School this summer.

ACEC Student Allison Honeycutt Attends the Washington D.C Youth Tour

As many as 1,500 high school students nationally are invited to spend a week in Washington, D.C. as part of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Youth Tour. All area rising juniors and seniors whose home is served by Pee Dee Electric are eligible to compete for an all-expense paid trip to the nation's capital.

This year Allison Honeycutt from Anson County Early College was given the chance to attend this wonderful program. "When I applied for the youth trip, I was anxious about meeting all of the new peers I would be spending my week with, as well as what the activities would be like on a daily basis, Allison said. "This week, to my surprise, was packed with activities ranging from seeing numerous monuments to riding scooters. One of my favorite parts of the trip was my visit to Arlington National Cemetery and my other was meeting people from all over the country including Hawaii! I highly recommend this trip to all rising juniors and seniors and I am grateful for the opportunity."

ACEC is thrilled that Allison was able to experience a wonderful week in Washington, D.C.!
