

North Carolina Cooperative Extension Service partnered for the sixth year with the NCACC on a multi-year initiative to increase youth involvement in county government. This initiative aims to overcome the mindset that many youth are disengaged and lack trust in government.

Na'La joined over 100 youth and adults from 80 counties in North Carolina at the event. It is sponsored and supported by the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners.

For more information on the 4-H program in Anson County please contact Roshunda Terry at 704-694-2915. The 4-H program is the youth education program of North Carolina Cooperative Extension, based at North Carolina State and North Carolina A&T State universities. More than 232,000 young people ages 5 through 18 participate in North Carolina 4-H activities each year with the help of more than 20,563 adult and youth volunteers.
