Cheraw Arts Commission
Presents "To The Limit - An Eagles Experience" in September

The Cheraw Arts Commission presents "To The Limit - An Eagles Experience" on Friday, September 13 at Cypress Music Hall, located at 1 Village Park in Cheraw. The concert starts at 7:00pm with doors opening at 6:30pm. Table seating is available. $25 Tickets can be purchased at the Cheraw Community Center - 200 Powe Street. Call the CAC for additional information 843.537.8420 x 12. The tribute band can be seen on YouTube by searching "To The Limit - An Eagles Experience."

The incredible catalog of the Eagles has stood the test of time and multiple generations. "To the Limit" captures this spirit in a bottle and somehow makes it their own, using the framework of these legends to produce, brand new and exciting moments for every listener to enjoy.

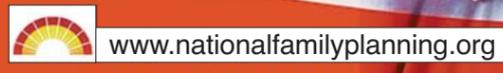

Attendees will hear a variety of songs by the famed Eagles including "Take it Easy" and "Peaceful Easy Feeling" from the glory days of AM radio. "Tequila Sunrise" will always bring a smile to every listener's face and sing along with thoughts as vivid as they were decades long ago. Meanwhile, soaring anthems like "One of these Nights" and "Witchy Woman" show the bands range in both vocal prowess as well as their arrangement chops. Iconic riffs and heavy-handed grooves abound in songs like "Hotel California" and "Victim of Love" while others like "Heartache Tonight" and "Life in the Fast Lane" are sure fire bets to get everyone out of their seats to dance the night away.

Members of "To The Limit - an Eagles Experience" have individually appeared on network TV shows like America's Got Talent and onstage with musical giants like Derek Trucks, Oteil Burbridge, Ed Roland (Collective Soul), even gospel/R&B legends like Kim Burrell and Jennifer Holiday. From their home base at the historic Strand Theatre in Marietta, GA, their popularity has grown to put them in demand at theaters and festivals across the country.

"To the Limit" is a product of the Georgia Players Guild - an agency of touring tribute shows across the country. Since 2014, they have staged hundreds of performances of over 30 different shows, paying tribute to over half a century of iconic music. No matter the band or genre, they go beyond just getting the songs right, seeking to make the experience true to the original.
