

Military Family Assistance Centers are Nearby

Both Southern Pines and Kannapolis in North Carolina have Military Family Assistance Centers. Family Assistance Centers assist servicemembers and their families with benefits and services they are eligible for such as counseling, tax preparation, financial planning and free or low cost child and youth programs.

Family Assistance Centers are a part of the North Carolina National Guard. They are designed to help support service members of the Guard, Reserve Active Duty and their families with benefits and services they are eligible to receive.

The Southern Pines Center (910-692-8747) is located at 500 Morganton Road. The Kannapolis Center (704-788-4553) is located at 6001 Gateway Center Drive, Suite 109. Visit the North Carolina National Guard website to find more about the Family Assistance Centers at www.nc.ngb.army.mil or call to speak with a Family Assistance center Specialist.

Free and Reduced Price Meals, It's Never Too Late To Apply

You may think that in order for your school aged child to receive free or reduced price meals you must apply at the beginning of the school year. And, you may even believe that if you did apply and were denied that you cannot reapply. That is simply not the case. In fact, you are encouraged to reapply at any given time during the year.

It could be that your situation has changed or your household has changed which would carry great bearing on your child's eligibility.

"School breakfast and lunch programs are nutritionally balanced and healthy. Research has shown that students who eat school meals perform at their best academically," said Angela Griffin, Child Nutrition Director for Anson County Schools.

Mrs. Griffin encourages all families to consider reapplying for the services. To do so call the Child Nutrition Office at 704-694-4417, extension 255 for more information. This program offers services all year and hopes you will reapply if your child or children were originally denied.
