

This is a release from NETworX Anson and HOLLA!: NETworX Anson and HOLLA! are collaborating to host a webinar via Zoom. The goal of this virtual event is to provide education to Ansonians about voting. This will be the first in a series of monthly community events organized by NETworX Anson. The webinar is nonpartisan and will not focus on candidates for voters to support. It will take place on Tuesday, September 29 at 7:00 pm.

"Covid-19 has impacted our lives and that also includes voting this election season", replied Heather McIntyre, a Community Connector on the Local Advisory Board. "We want to know that we have helped spread the word about how, despite the pandemic, people are able to safely vote."

Danielle Brown of Black Voters Matter and a representative of Anson County's Board of Elections are the panelists for the webinar. HOLLA! CEO, Leon Gatewood, will lead the discussion. Devin Pettiford, NETworX Anson's Site Coordinator, said "We are very excited to have a panel of people to share their expertise on things such as absentee ballots, voter registration, and why people need to vote."

Registration for the event is required. Further information, including the Zoom link, are available on NETworX Anson and HOLLA!'s Facebook pages. For inquiries about attending, please contact Devin Pettiford at devintpettiford@gmail.com.
